Tourism Industry Brochure Exchange

Gems Along the Mohawk
800 Mohawk Street
Herkimer, NY 13350
5:00 pm
Jerry Gertz, 315-866-5989
eriecanalcruises@aol.com,

*On Wednesday, May 14th, the regional Tourism Industry will gather at Gems Along the Mohawk in Herkimer to participate in the Annual Regional Tourism Industry Brochure Exchange. Gems is a new venue this year having previously been held at the Fly Creek
*Cider Mill & Orchard. Starting at 5:00 PM, tourism industry members such as accommodation providers, restaurants, attractions and museums are encouraged to register for the exchange and park their cars, open their trunks and share their printed promotional material with one another. “This is the best networking opportunity for restaurants, attractions and hotels to secure brochures for display in their facilities at no cost to the registered participants,” says Captain Jerry Gertz, owner of Erie Canal Cruises. “Additionally, attendees will get a better idea of what is available for visitors to experience in our region, as many use the exchange to showcase their *properties.” Tourism businesses and organizations from Herkimer, Oneida, Otsego, Schoharie and Chenango Counties are invited to participate in the exchange. Captain Gertz says, “Visitors to our region are not concerned with county lines, working collectively to promote each other is in the interest of the entire region.” The event begins at 5:00 PM, and following the exchange, Erie Canal Cruises will offer a complimentary dinner cruise for registered participants aboard Lil’ Diamond III. The Italian buffet dinner is compliments of the Waterfront Grille and accompanied by beverages from regional producers. Registration for the Exchange is unlimited. Due to occupancy restrictions, *registration for the dinner cruise will be limited to the first 80 industry members with a maximum of two per member. Registrants will receive tickets to the cruise and dinner at the brochure exchange. Any open seats will be filled the day of the event. This tourism industry marketing and networking opportunity is free. Interested members of the media are also welcome and encouraged to register. *

Glory Days: A Tribute to Bruce Springsteen
The Lake House
2521 County Highway 22
Cooperstown, NY 13326
07:00 PM - 10:00 PM EST
Gene Corrigan, 3155297560
lakehouse1843@netscape.net
A unique six-piece ensemble, Glory Days is a tribute to an American musical icon perhaps one of the greatest rock singers/songwriters of our time Bruce Springsteen. This band's lineup is exclusively composed of experienced concert musicians able to recreate some of the classic songs and performances that were, and still are, Springsteen's trademark. This is without a doubt one of the best touring acts, one that has a Springsteen look-alike fronting the band. Add phenomenal musicianship and an infectious on-stage enthusiasm and you get the perfect recipe for an unforgettable night of pure passion and energy. Glory Days is not content to just play the songs, they also manage to recreate an authentic Springsteen "experience" by adding the little details that put Springsteen shows and songs in a category all their own. Glory Days will give you an arena rock-show experience unlike any other, also hoping that a younger generation will be exposed to the most influential rock music and poetry of our time. Glory Days is not just a combination of talented musicians, it's also a combination of Springsteen hardcore fans. It's a family; six individuals dedicated to recreating what Bruce gave and still gives us; not just his music, but his feelings as well: joy and sadness, tears and laughter but before all, a sincere honesty.

James Cawley as Elvis Presley
The Lake House
2521 County Highway 22
Cooperstown, NY 13326
07:00 PM - 10:00 PM EST
Gene Corrigan, 3155297560
lakehouse1843@netscape.net
James Cawley has been ranked the Number 1 Elvis impersonator in the USA by a committee of Elvis fan club presidents out of 2500 contestants. His amazing resemblance to "The King" in appearance, mannerisms, and voice have also earned finalist status in the Worldwide Elvis impersonator contest. Vegas of the early 1970's and Elvis Presley at the height of his career. The show allows the audience the chance to relive the excitement of having seen "The King" in person. His 75 minute shows feature the "TCB Band", a group with more than two decades of musical experience. Authentic reproductions of Elvis' wardrobe, jewelry, and even guitars, add to the show's 30-plus song repertoire, which includes all of Elvis' most loved classics. Over the past 22 years, James' shows have ranged from full-blown Las Vegas style shows with 15 musicians, female dancers and The Jordanaires (Elvis' original backup quartet) to mid-sized shows with the "TCB Band" tailor-made for small venues. He has appeared at sold out shows in theaters and casinos across the country at such places as: Tropicana Casino, Atlantic City; Claridge Casino, Atlantic City; Legends in Concert, Las Vegas; Gatlin Brother's Theater, Myrtle Beach; Mystic Lake Casino, Minnesota; Hollywood Casino, Chicago; and Six Flags, Lake George; and many, many, others. James Cawley says he is honored to allow audiences the chance to experience Elvis's stage shows and his respectful portrayal of The King of Rock and Roll is the next best thing to seeing Elvis himself. James is endorsed by Elvis' original back-up singers and several of Elvis' original musicians.
