2018 Spring Lean Certification Series

Chippewa Valley Technical College
403 Technology Drive East
Menomonie, WI 54751

Heidi Rabeneck, 715-232-5506
rabeneckh@uwstout.edu

The Lean Certification series comprises a series of workshops that include live simulations with a mentored implementation project at your company. This powerhouse combination provides swift and targeted technical competencies custom-fit to your unique needs. The cost savings from your first project typically pay back your investment many times over and promote the next continuous improvement activities. The program includes six sessions beginning Tuesday, March 6, 2018. See website for more details.
