The importance of calling 911 for the emergency services

Vance Auditorium at Methodist Hospital

300 W. Huntington Dr

Arcadia, CA 91007

02:00 PM - 03:00 PM PST

James Cooke, 626-898-8094

james.cooke@methodisthospital.org

The scheduled speaker for our August 22nd, 2018 The Mended Hearts Support Group meeting will be the Arcadia Fire Department Battalion Chief Chen Suen. Methodist Hospital ER Clinical Educator Christine Lopez will join the team to discuss the communications between the Paramedics and the ER department.

We believe in calling 911 in cases of unusual physical symptoms or emergencies, to save time and minimize the damage that could be done by delaying proper treatment and are committed to remind the public of the urgent nature of proper treatment as early as possible.
