9 a.m.-5 p.m., includes lunch

Donna Fong,

The California BBQ Association (CBBQA) Judging Workshop is suited for certified BBQ judges (CBJ), cooks interested in how CBJs judge BBQ, and enthusiasts wanting to learn more about BBQ and how it is judged in sanctioned contests.

The workshop will discuss how people become certified judges, how to get into a BBQ contest as a judge, what the roles and responsibilities are for judges, types of BBQ categories and how each cut of meat is trimmed and presented, how appearance, taste and texture is judged, regional types of BBQ across the country, and addresses many of the BBQ judging myths seen on television.

This class is in its fourth year and taught by master judges, contest organizers, contest representatives, and professional BBQ cooks on the BBQ. Though CBBQA membership is not required, it is strongly encouraged. Membership is just $36/year and a link to become a member can be found on the top right of the CBBQA.org homepage or here: <http://www.cbbqa.org/wiki/index.php?title=Membership>.

Topics will include:

- Working with contest organizers (Robert Stouffer)
- Roles and Responsibilities (Kelly McIntosh)
- History of BBQ (Aaron Staines)
- Jump-starting Your Judging Experience (Scott Simpson)
- BBQ Anatomy & Demo (Donna Fong)
- Regional BBQ & Demo (Harry Soo)
- Appearance (Cindy Wilcken)
- Texture & Tenderness & Demo (Julie Poe)
- Importance and Psychology of Taste (Harry Soo)
- Judging Myths (Panel Q&A)

Students who have accounts on JudgeBBQ.com will receive credit for the course. Each participating student will receive a workshop pin on the day of the class. Please email Donna Fong at butchersdaughter@hotmail.com for a registration form.

-----

\ Please note that this workshop is not affiliated with any sanctioning body and does not certify students as judges for BBQ sanctioning bodies.*
