DOWNIEVILLE CLASSIC

Early till Late
Kyla Pascucci,
kyla@sierratrails.org

Downieville, CA (August-2-5, 2018) One of the world's premiere mountain bike races, bookended by an awesome festival. The Downieville Classic has been rolling for over 20 years and is considered one of the Top 10 Mountain Bike Festivals in the US by Outside Magazine. Live music, premium beer, food vendors and an all-weekend mainstreet industry expo top off the event.

946 registered racers (2017). The All Mountain (cross country and downhill combined) sells out in less than two hours of registration opening.

Saturday is a gnarly 29-mile point-to-point cross country race up to the Sierra Crest and the descending into Downieville.

Sunday is fast, technical 15-mile downhill with racers reaching over 40 mph.

Racers podium on Saturday and Sunday for their respective races, culminating in Sunday's All Mountain World Championships.

Mainstreet shuts down all weekend for the industry expo, allowing sponsors to line the streets and exhibit their finest products to a captive, engaged audience of racers and spectators.

There are numerous sponsorship opportunities around town and on the podium. Ron's House of Big Air River Jump and Cozmo's Wild Island are extremely well attended and photographed events.

*Lake Almanor is the place to be the weekend of August 24th through 26th as we celebrate the extraordinary "dancing" grebes with our third annual Grebe Festival centered in Chester, CA. Western and Clark's Grebes (Aechmophorus occidentalis and A. clarkii) nest on Lake Almanor which is considered an Important Bird Area by National Audubon and which has grown in its importance as a breeding site for these grebes in recent years as drought has caused loss of nesting habitat elsewhere. Late August is a great time to view the grebes as they are still nesting on the lake in colonies, racing across the water in their incredible "rushing" displays, and when babies are hatching and climbing aboard their parents' backs.*

Kayak and pontoon field trips will allow festival-goers to get an up-close (but not too close!) look at nesting grebes. A variety of other field trips around the Lake Almanor basin and Lassen National Park will be sure to satisfy! For more information, please visit www.plumasaudubon.org/grebe-festival

GRINDURO- Quincy, CA (September 29, 2018) The Grinduro fame continues to grow each year. Named Event of the Year by the Design & Innovation Awards team for 2016, and 'your new favorite bike race' by Outside Magazine. 62 miles of pavement, gravel, and singletrack with plenty of climbing and twisty descents. Most of the ride is casual, there are four timed sections that are designed to cater to specific strengths. Grinduro racers and spectators are treated to three days of camping, live music (including a late-night DJ), beer, awesome food, and campfires.

898 registered riders (2017). Grinduro sells out almost instantaneously.

The Grinduro pop-up shop featuring custom bike manufacturers and artists and draws endless foot traffic.

Custom Grinduro shoes, clothing and other merchandise products have built the Grinduro brand internationally.

The fun-filled, comradic spirit of Grinduro has lead some to say, "The Grinduro format might just save bike racing."

Grinduro is our most photographed race, there are multiple sponsorship opportunities available for onsite branding and presence.
