One celebration. Two locations to choose from.

The first Sunday of June is National Cancer Survivors Day — a day that is celebrated around the globe. This day honors people living with a history of cancer, celebrates their milestones and recognizes those who have cared and supported them along the way.

On this day, the Samaritan Cancer Program will host a free in-person event for cancer survivors and loved ones, in Corvallis and in Newport. The event will take place from 1 to 3 p.m. and the program format will be similar at each location.

Program Overview:

1 p.m. – Doors open. Enjoy good food, company and more.
1:45 p.m. – Talks start from the cancer care team, survivors and others.
2:15 p.m. – Explore community cancer resources.
3 p.m. – Program concludes.

Location Details:

Corvallis
The LaSells Stewart Center
875 SW 26th St., Corvallis, OR 97331
(located on the campus of Oregon State University)

Newport
Center for Health Education
740 SW 9th St., Newport, OR 97365
(located across from Samaritan Pacific Communities Hospital)

Advance registration is encouraged and can be completed online at samhealth.org/CelebrateSurvivors or by phone at 541-768-2171.
