MCHS Speaker Series: An Introduction to Railroads

Main Street Community Center

1003 North Main Street

Edwardsville, IL 62025

2PM

Cindy Reinhardt, 618-656-1294

cindy.reinhardt@madcohistory.org

The presenter, Kendrick Bisset, will talk about the rise of railroads, technology, and the impact of railroads on transportation. Bissett has a long association with railroads. He interned for the Milwaukee Road and the Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) while in college, and after graduation found permanent employment with the CTA as a signal engineer. His entire 44-year professional career has been in railroad signaling system design.

Speaker Series events are free and open to the public. In addition to the program, there will be a small book sale that includes books on railroading in the room outside the lecture hall. The Speaker Series is presented by the Madison County Historical Society, which is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. The Society operates the Madison County Archival Library at 801 N. Main Street in Edwardsville. Hours are 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. Monday-Friday, and Sunday 1-4 p.m. For further information, call 618-656-7569.

Trivia Through the Decades

Edwardsville Moose Lodge

7371 Marine Road

Edwardsville, IL 62025

07:00 PM - 09:00 PM CST

RoxAnn Raisner, 6186921818

stephensonhouse1820@yahoo.com

Put on your thinking caps and enjoy a night of trivia with a stylish twist! Trivia Through the Decades returns with a 1940s CLUE-inspired décor and costume theme, setting the scene for an evening full of fun and friendly competition.

While the look of the night is classic mystery vibes, the trivia questions themselves span multiple decades, covering topics from the 1920s through today. You won't be playing CLUE, but you will be testing your knowledge across pop culture, history, and more. Costumes are encouraged (but not required), and guests are welcome to dress as a CLUE character, in 1940s style, or from any decade they love, or simply come ready to play.

The event will be held on April 25 at the Edwardsville Moose Club, 7371 Marine Rd, Edwardsville. Doors open at 6:00 PM, with trivia beginning promptly at 7:00 PM. Teams may include up to 8 players and cost $200 per team table or $25 per person. Space is limited, and this event sells out quickly, so early registration is highly recommended.

Teams registered and paid by April 17 will receive their mulligans for FREE. Participants will enjoy free beer (while supplies last), soda, and water. Outside beverages are not permitted, but guests are welcome to bring their own food.

Cash prizes will be awarded to 1st and 2nd place teams, and a costume contest will add even more fun to the evening. Was it Colonel Mustard in the Moose Club with the candlestick? Join us and find out—it's sure to be a night to remember!

Artifact Appreciation Day
Immanuel United Methodist Church
800 North Main Street
Edwardsville, IL 62025

01:00 PM - 04:00 PM CST

Do you have Native American artifacts that you want to learn more about? The Madison County Historical Society (MCHS) and the Cahokia Archaeological Society (CAS) are hosting an Artifact Identification Day on Saturday, May 2, from 1-4 p.m. at Immanuel United Methodist Church, 800 N. Main Street, in Edwardsville, Illinois. The event is in the lower-level Community Room on the south side of the church.

The afternoon will begin at 1 p.m. with a brief program by Dr. Erin Benson of the Illinois State Archaeological Survey. Following the program, attendees can approach one of five professional archaeologists on hand to identify what artifacts are, what they were used for, and an approximate time-period. In addition to archaeologists provided by CAS and MCHS, there will also be an archaeologist from the Illinois State Archaeological Survey. The archaeologists will not provide monetary values and this is not a sale or trading event.

Immanuel United Methodist Church
800 North Main Street
Edwardsville, IL 62025
7PM

Cindy Reinhardt, 618-656-1294

cindy.reinhardt@madcohistory.org

The Madison County Historical Society will host another Literary Salon on Thursday, May 14, at 7 p.m. in the Community Room of Immanuel United Methodist Church at 800 N. Main Street in Edwardsville, Illinois. The Community Room is on the lower level with entry on the south side of the building.

The topic for this event, "Illinois Poets," will include the work of Pulitzer Prize-winning poet and biographer Carl Sandburg who was often called the "poet of the people." Emeritus Professor Jeffrey Skoblow, who organized two previous Literary Salons for MCHS, reaches out to friends, as well as students attending SIUE and Edwardsville High School to recruit a group of poetry readers who are enthusiastic about the works they present. Both previous events were well attended with appreciative audiences.

The MCHS Literary Salons are offered at no charge to the public, although donations are always welcome. Light refreshments will be served.

Center for Educational Opportunities
201 Staunton Road
Troy, IL 62294

9AM-3PM Daily
Rachel Lewis, 618-296-4535
rllewis@madisoncountyiil.gov

The annual MCHS Summer History Camp will provide four days of action-packed "Transportation Adventures" for children aged 9-12. Registration is now open for the camp, which is offered by the Madison County Historical Society (MCHS) in partnership with the Madison County Regional Office of Education #41.

This summer camp will include a riverboat excursion, a Route 66 scavenger hunt, visits to museums, including the National Museum of Transportation, and educational activities. The goal is to bring campers up close and personal with the rivers, routes, and rails which influenced the story of Madison County. The camp is only available for children ages 9-12.

Each day begins at the Center for Educational Opportunities in Troy, Illinois, before heading out for daily trips to regional historic places. The registration fee of $200 includes snacks, transportation, entry fees, and educational materials. Campers are asked to bring their own sack lunch daily.

The children are accompanied by four adult educators and three camp interns, usually high school or college students. Transportation is on District 7 school buses with experienced bus drivers.

Join the Fun at the 11th Annual Cougars Unleashed Homecoming Run & Pancake Breakfast

Saturday, Sept. 26th | 9 a.m. | SIUE Stratton Quad

All Roads Lead Home to the 11th Annual Cougars Unleashed Homecoming Run & Pancake Breakfast, part of SIUE's Homecoming & Family Weekend and in commemoration of the Route 66 Centennial Celebration! Choose from a 10K, 5K, or Fun Run: whether you're a competitive runner or just in it for the pancakes, there's something for everyone.

Special $5 Discount for SIUE Alumni and Discounted Pricing for Current SIUE Students! We're excited to offer a discounted registration rate exclusively for SIUE alumni and current students. It's our way of saying thank you for being part of the Cougar community!

This signature event is open to alumni, students, faculty, staff, and the entire community. Even better, your participation helps support the SIUE Alumni Association Scholarship and Programs, which provide over $20,000 annually in scholarships to deserving students and deliver meaningful programming for alumni.

After you cross the finish line, stick around for a complimentary pancake breakfast from Chris Cakes and—for those 21 and older—a refreshing post-run beer from Global Brew.

Dogs are welcome to join the fun! ?

Guarantee your official Cougars Unleashed race shirt by registering before Friday, September 4th!

Run. Support. Celebrate. All Roads Lead Home.
