- September 21, 2024 Lee County Rivers Alive
09:00 AM - 01:00 PM EST
Lee County's Annual Rivers Alive will be held Saturday, September 21st. Volunteers will be traveling the Kinchafoonee and Muckalee Creeks removing trash and debris from the banks and bottom of our waterways. Anyone who registers early will receive a Lee County Rivers Alive t-shirt. There is no charge to participate. Lee County Rivers Alive is a family friendly event and we ask that no alcohol be brought to the creek or to the park.

*Join us in celebrating Flint RiverQuarium's 20th anniversary at our annual Water, Wings, & Wildlife festival. We'll be bringing back crowd favorites including the Butterfly Tent sponsored by Molson Coors Beverage Company, Birds of Prey Shows, Discover Scuba, and Venomous Reptile Presentations, as well as an array of wildlife demonstrations, crafts, food trucks, and more! Whether they are wet and scaly, feathered, slimy, or furry, we'll be honoring all the incredible wild creatures that enrich our beautiful world! Activities are included in Aquarium admission and FREE to members.
We'll also be revealing an exciting new installation to our lobby with a big message so mark your calendars! You won't want to miss out on being one of the lucky firsts to catch a glimpse!
Register for Discover Scuba: <https://flinriverquarium.regfox.com/discover-scuba-water...>
Note: There is an additional fee to participate in Discover Scuba. Discover Scuba will begin at 10AM (1 hour prior to the start of the main event).*
