Trauma Informed Coaching - Spanish

Butte College - Glenn Center

1366 Cortina Drive

Orland, CA 95963

09:00 AM - 12:00 PM PST

The Training Place, 530-893-9015

thetrainingplace@butte.edu

What does it mean to be trauma-informed? Understanding the biology of traumatic and stressful life experiences helps us bring compassion and empathy to relate with others and ourselves more healthily. Let's build together a trauma-informed and resiliency-focused workforce to improve relationships in the workplace and performance.

Como liderar un equipo teniendo en cuenta el stress y el trauma.

Estres, Trauma, mi Lugar de Trabajo y Yo (CRM)

A veces es fácil asumir que algo esta "mal" con mis compañeros de trabajo o con mis clientes cuando los veo tener una respuesta "exagerada" ante pequeños problemas. Pero asumir esto no es justo ni correcto, y afecta negativamente en las relaciones que construyo con ellos. Aun más importante, ¿que sucede si el "exagerado" soy yo, y creo no poder controlar mis propios sentimientos? ¿Hay algo mal conmigo? ¿Que puedo hacer para manejar esta situación mejor?

Entender la biología del trauma/estrés, y los cambios que toman lugar en mi propia fisiología luego de experimentar situaciones traumáticas o muy estresantes, puede ayudarme a ser más empático y compasivo hacia otros y mi mismo. En esta capacitación aprenderá lo que significa estar informado respecto al trauma, y enfocado en su propia resiliencia. También aprenderá las 6 técnicas del modelo CRM para promover la autorregulación y promover un mejor estado de bienestar.

FRRPD Presents - Fall Concerts in the Park - "Chico Swing Band"

Riverbend Park
50 Montgomery Street
Oroville, CA 95965

Both Food Trucks and Music are from 2:00pm to 4:00pm
FRRPD or Chico Swing Band, (530)533-2011
<https://www.frrpd.com/contact-us> or chicoswingband

The Chico Swing Band is a 15 piece Big Band featuring the music of the 1940s, '50s and beyond. We recapture the great sounds of the swing era with old favorites, plus big band arrangements of contemporary tunes

Founded in 2021, the Chico Swing Band brings together Northern California musicians with over 600 years (count 'em) of musical experience in large bands and small, marching bands, combos, small ensembles, and more. We started out as a "little big band," but quickly grew to a full-flavored swing band, including five saxes, three trumpets, three trombones, bass, guitar, keyboard and drums.

FRRPD's Riverbend Half-Mile Fitness Trail - RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY

Amphitheatre - Riverbend Park
50 Montgomery Street
Oroville, CA 95965

Starts @ 3:00pm
FRRPD, (530)533-2011
<https://www.frrpd.com/contact-us>

Feather River Recreation and Park District, CalFresh, and Butte County Public Health invite you to attend the Riverbend Half-Mile Fitness Trail Ribbon Cutting to celebrate the new QR Code Upgrades!

QR codes are placed on each piece of equipment along the Fitness Trail. This allows park users to easily access instructional videos featuring local professional trainers demonstrating the correct usage of each station by scanning the QR code with their mobile devices.

Together with CalFresh Healthy Living, we are creating no-cost, high-quality exercise opportunities to support residents in maintaining an active lifestyle without the financial barriers of gym memberships and professional training.

Parks like Riverbend play a vital role in community wellness. Having these safe, open spaces with walkable paths is important because they help get people active and are open to everyone.

Date: Sunday, September 29th, 3:00pm
Location: Amphitheater, Riverbend Park, 50 Montgomery Street

Oroville, CA 95965

08:00 AM - 11:00 AM PST

Caring for Women, 530-533-8388

assistant@caringforwomen.life

Bob Beever (1937-2008) and his son, Bill, began this tournament in 2004 to benefit Caring for Women Pregnancy Resource Center, an organization near and dear to Bob's heart. Many of you may remember Bob as a stellar businessman, a broker, and a land developer with his own company, Bob Beever Realty. In addition, Bob was a generous philanthropist, serving on the Board for Caring for Women, the Board of Realtors, and in multiple capacities in his church community. Above all else, Bob loved his Lord Jesus Christ and was an excellent husband, father, grandfather, and friend. We have missed him, but he is not forgotten. And we are honored to carry on his legacy with this year's tournament.

You can Register here, sign up to be a Sponsor or stop by the Caring For Women Center: Monday 1-5 PM or Tuesday through Thursday, 10 AM – 5PM to pick up a packet.

Gain clarity about the 5 main sources of conflict. Identify patterns that emerge in your role based on these root causes of conflict. Learn specific communication techniques for minimizing conflict in these areas. Focus on productively resolving conflict while minimizing negative outcomes and maximizing positive outcomes.

Conflict Resolution 2:

Understand the strengths and limitations of each conflict resolution strategy. Identify your natural conflict style and think about the natural styles of your coworkers. Improve your conflict resolution skill set by applying the best strategy for the situation and people involved.

Conflict Resolution 3:

Understand and utilize the conflict dialog guidelines. Face conflicts with a focus on mutual understanding through discussion and action plan development for long-term resolution. Become educated on how to consistently demonstrate behaviors that minimize conflict in the workplace and identify how to facilitate productive difficult conversations. The three primary components of facilitating difficult conversations, eight defusing skills and six resolving skills will be shared and discussed.

Conflict Resolution 4:

Minimize conflict in the workplace by identifying challenging behaviors on your team and learning techniques on how to appropriately respond to those behaviors. How to use fact-based communication to minimize emotional exchanges. Identify how various personality styles may be adding to increased conflict. Learn about your specific work style, various work style's strengths and weaknesses and how to increase productivity when working with all styles.

Lean applies to every employee role in every business and every process. It is not a tactic or a cost reduction program, but a way of thinking and acting for an entire organization. Lean thinking changes the focus of management from optimizing separate technologies, assets, and vertical departments to optimizing the flow of products and services through entire value streams that flow horizontally across technologies, assets, and departments to customers. Lean Principles is the foundation course for all other Continuous Improvement topics.

4-part series, 1/30, 2/13, 2/27, 3/13, 9 am - 12 pm

Are you a new manager? Have you been managing employees but feel like you still struggle to effectively address performance issues? Can you differentiate between what is a simple issue that you can address versus something that requires the help of HR or a legal professional? Do you wonder if there's a more effective way to address employee misconduct? If your answer to any of the above questions is yes, this series is for you!

We have developed a comprehensive set of classes that will help new and existing managers examine what it means to be a manager and learn how to navigate common personnel issues. Through this series of courses, you can learn to become a more effective manager in today's complex business environment. Classes consist of a mix of lecture and hands-on learning. After learning the principles of management, you will get an opportunity to immediately tackle common employment problems and practice your approach to managing others in a supportive learning environment. By hearing, seeing and doing, you can learn to be a more confident, effective manager of personnel.
