The initial steps to establishing this mutually beneficial partnership include:

- Completing and submitting the membership application, new member survey and membership payment.
- Schedule a one-on-one meeting with John E. Harmon, Sr., President and CEO of the AACCNJ. In this meeting, you will discuss and agree on mutual expectations, followed by a plan of action.

The AACCNJ will work with you over the course of the one year membership period to meet the established goals. We are confident that we can deliver on our Value Proposition and effectively contribute to the success of your business.
