

FOCUS ON Cadillac Through The Years

A 108 Year Walk Through History by Pat Wall

On Sunday, March 28th from 10am to 5pm, Findlay Cadillac, The District and the Cadillac & La Salle Club of Las Vegas will present Cadillac Through the Years... marking 108 years of Cadillac history. This will be the 5th year for this popular show set in The District, in Henderson, Nevada.

No other vehicle brand has the rich artistic history that Cadillac does. 74 Classic Cadillac's will be displayed during this year's show including the famous 1960 Cadillac El Dorado Brougham, which will be the featured classic car at this year's show.

There will also be a walk through the future as Findlay Cadillac proudly unveils the 2011 CTS Coupe as their featured vehicle.

The oldest Cadillac exhibited in this year's show will be a 1917 Type 55 Phaeton, owned by Colin Christie, President of the Las Vegas La Salle Club. Other show stars will include a 1949 convertible, a 1962 Coupe de Ville, a 1954 convertible, a 1984 Biarritz, and several models from the 1930's. Joining their historic ancestors will be a display of all 2010 Cadillac models from Findlay Cadillac, including the all new 2010 Cadillac CTS Sports Wagon and the sporty 2010 SRX... the Cadillac of Crossovers.

If you are a lover of historic classic Cadillacs, The District is the place to be for Cadillac Through the Years. This is a family oriented, free admission day at The District. The show encompasses the entire Village Walk with entertainment pleasing to everyone including fame race car driver Taylor Barton and his exciting race car. A great photo op along with an autograph opportunity. KMXF 97.1 The Point will provide a live radio remote from 11am to 1pm. Positively KidsFoundation, will be available with information about their Charity and Scott O'Neal, The Voice of Findlay Cadillac will emcee the event.

All visitors to Cadillac Through the Years will have the opportunity to vote for their favorite classic Cadillac and visitors will also have the opportunity to win prizes offered by The Point, The District and Findlay Cadillac including a grand prize drawn from all entries.

Over 20,000 visitors attend this annual one day show. A great way to spend a Sunday. For additional information call Colin Christie at 702-562-0940 or go online to www.findlaycadillac.com.
