MEDIA ADVISORY/PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

Indianola YMCA to Host High School Girls Regional Swim Meet Oct. 31

WHO: High school girls swim teams from Indianola, Ames, Des Moines East, Des Moines North, Des Moines Roosevelt, Grinnell, Lewis Central, Oskaloosa and Waukee will compete at the Indianola YMCA.

WHAT: The Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union (IGHSAU) Regional Swimming and Diving Meet to be held in Indianola is one of six locations around the state where teams will compete to qualify for the state meet.

WHEN: Saturday, Oct. 31 at 12:00 p.m.

WHERE: Indianola YMCA, 306 East Scenic Valley Avenue, Indianola, Iowa
The Indianola YMCA's natatorium features a 25 yard pool, diving well, and seating for 400 spectators.

WHY: The Indianola YMCA is proud to be able to host this caliber of event for the Indianola High School and for the community of Indianola. Community partnerships were crucial in bringing the YMCA to Indianola and continue to shape how the YMCA serves the community. In addition to the Indianola High School team, the Indianola Y also hosts the Simpson College and Y age group swim teams. Throughout the swimming season, the Y will regularly host 200+ competitive youth swimmers each day and host approximately 15 home swim meets.

NOTE: The Indianola YMCA will also host the Iowa High School Athletic Association (IHSAA) Boys District Swimming Meet, on Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016. Teams will be announced this winter.
