Dear Friends,

Community of Hope is excited to announce Mr. Drew Warren as our new Executive Director beginning May 1st. For more than a decade Community of Hope has served homeless families in Brevard County by providing housing and much needed support. Community of Hope has long term plans for growth to meet the expanding needs of homeless families with children in our area.

Mr. Warren has been a leader in education and mental health for over 20 years. Most recently he worked in mental health counseling for children and families with Kinderkonsulting. Through his work with families, Mr. Warren has seen first-hand the devastating effects of poverty and homelessness on the lives of families and children. Mr. Warren comes with a caring heart for families in need and a wealth of experience that will enable him to lead Community of Hope into a bright future.

Community of Hope has been blessed to have Jeffrey Njus serve as interim Executive Director for the last several months. With a compassionate heart for families in need, Jeffrey has helped Community of Hope to live out its mission of helping families move forward with hope. We are grateful that he will continue to be part of Community of Hope, living and working at Hope Village while serving in pastoral ministry at Ascension Catholic Church.

"We are grateful that Community of Hope's new Executive Director has a vision for growth and service," said Stephanie Hopper, president of the Board of Trustees. "We know he will be a great addition to our team." The Board of Trustees is confident that our new Executive Director will strengthen our team as he brings together board members, staff and volunteers, leading us in the mission of Community of Hope to provide housing and hope to families.

Community of Hope is a faith-based 501c3 non-profit with a vision for transforming lives with hope and dignity. www.hopeofbrevard.com
