Brevard Zoo to host job fair with other nonprofits

MELBOURNE, Fla., September 14, 2017 — Brevard Zoo is seeking motivated, hard-working individuals to attend a job fair on Friday, September 22. The organization has several part-time and seasonal positions available in its foodservice, adventure services and guest services departments as well as the upcoming six-month dinosaur exhibit.

Representatives from Florida Wildlife Hospital and Sanctuary, Marine Resources Council and other local organizations will also be on hand with volunteer and work opportunities for those interested in the fields of animal care and conservation.

Hopefuls should arrive at the Zoo's Nyami Nyami River Lodge no later than 11 a.m. They will be asked to submit resumes to and fill out applications for the organizations they are interested in. Those selected for interviews will be contacted after the job fair to schedule a time to return. All prospective Zoo employees must consent to a drug test and background check.

More information is available at www.brevardzoo.org/job-fair. Questions can be directed to senior administrative assistant Deb Batt at 321-254-9453, ext. 210.
