EAU GALLIE ARTS DISTRICT'S POPULAR DOG DAYS OF SUMMER – FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 2017

EGAD's themed First Friday for August is Dog Days of Summer held on Highland Avenue in the historic Eau Gallie Arts District on Friday, August 4 from 6-10 pm. Highland Avenue goes to the dogs for a fun family and dog night out with food, beverages, arts, crafts and merchandise vendors, along with a rock climbing wall sponsored by Slug-a-Bug, a "swim-up" dog water splash bar sponsored by Richards Appraisal Service, a café area sponsored by Jacqueline's Bakery, and live music by Oranga Tanga.

The Fun Dog Show, with its official dog ribbons, will be featured on the main stage, sponsored by Edward Jones, and judged by none other than Keith Winsten, the executive director of the Brevard Zoo.

New this year is the Facebook-based photo contest. Post your dog's picture, share to get "likes," and the dog with the most likes will win "Most Popular Dog" during the Dog Show. Other categories include: Best Costume, Most Fashionable, Looks Most Like the Owner, Biggest and Smallest Dogs, Best Trick Big Dog/Small Dog, Most Spots, Cutest Puppy, and the Ugliest Dog.

This event is free and open to the public, and there will be an ATM on site for food and merchant vendors that do not take cash.
