New Director of Development Named at Habitat for Humanity of Brevard County, Inc.

Palm Bay, Florida – October 6, 2014 – Habitat for Humanity of Brevard County, Inc. (Habitat) is pleased to name their new Director of Development, John W. (J.) Brewer, III. J. was hired October 2, 2014, after a protracted search during which time the position was vacant for more than a year.

Prior to joining Habitat, the Florida State University graduate enjoyed a 30 year career of corporate, small business and entrepreneurial engagements in team, leadership and executive positions. J. has combined his FSU education in theatre, television and film, his experience in information technology, digital media and business, and his entrepreneurial skills and spirit to produce key outcomes. “I believe God opened this door at this time in my life. It was simply up to me to step across the threshold. With His guidance and the Habitat team, I look forward to serving the mission of action and vision of decent, affordable homes for deserving Brevard families,” Brewer stated.

“We are very proud to have J. as the new Director of Development,” said Diane Koenig, Executive Director of Brevard Habitat. “His education, experience and skills are just what we need to help us fulfill our marketing and community development goals going forward. We are confident he will help us to achieve our stated vision and mission.”

About Habitat for Humanity of Brevard County, Inc.

Habitat for Humanity of Brevard County, Inc. is part of a global, nonprofit housing organization operated on Christian principles that seeks to put God’s love into action by building homes, communities and hope. Habitat for Humanity of Brevard County is dedicated to eliminating substandard housing locally and worldwide through constructing, rehabilitating and preserving homes; by advocating for fair and just housing policies; and by providing training and access to resources to help families improve their shelter conditions. Habitat for Humanity was founded on the conviction that every man, woman and child should have a simple, durable place to live in dignity and safety, and that decent shelter in decent communities should be a matter of
