WELCOME TO MESQUITE NEVADA

J. Blake Syndergaard

Welcome to the 2015 edition of the Mesquite Chamber of Commerce Membership Directory and Community Profile. My hope is when you come to visit our little treasure in the desert you will fall in love as I have. Whether you are someone who is considering moving your family or business here, already a part of our community, a Chamber member, a potential Chamber member or just visiting, we invite you to learn more about the people, history and business that make up the Mesquite Lifestyle.

Mesquite is unlike any other city in Nevada. With an average commute of a little over an hour to Las Vegas, direct flights and advantages other big cities may provide are close by, but not too close to interfere with the small town atmosphere we enjoy. Indeed we can say "Mesquite is in the middle of everywhere." Mesquite is a safe and friendly community with beautiful landscapes to provide the greatest golfing on earth, along with hiking, biking, off road tours, gaming and nightlife. We have a growing artist's community hosting "Best of the Fest in Mesquite", from Doc Utah Film Festival and a fascinating history. We are a great place to relocate or start a new business, raise a family, receive an education, live a healthy lifestyle and pursue the arts. Mesquite is a desirable place to visit or call home, the surrounding beauty of the red mesas inspire residents and visitors alike. Mesquite has it all in a small town package.

As past Mesquite Chairman of the Board, I have advocated for its chamber members and businesses alike, the Mesquite Chamber works closely with businesses and community leaders. We leverage and enhance the talents and resources of our members to create a climate of growth and success in the community. Through leadership opportunities, volunteer efforts and business-building programs, the Mesquite Chamber works to improve the economic vitality of the Mesquite area.

Mesquite is a generous community and the Chamber wishes to extend a special thanks to all who support us. We offer a special invitation for all businesses to join our Chamber. The Chamber works for the business community through a wide variety of programs and services from serving as a business advocate, providing educational seminars and workshops, offering marketing assistance, as well as holding networking luncheons, monthly mixers and ribbon-cutting ceremonies for new businesses.

Enjoy our Business and Visitors Guide which comes with all the important information you will need, including our member directory that includes great information about their services. They are community-minded businesses and we highly recommend you call them first. If there is anything else you would like to know about the Chamber or Mesquite, be sure and give us a call here at the Mesquite Chamber of Commerce or visit our website at Mesquite-Chamber.com, follow us on Facebook (Mesquite Business to Businesses) to get information on events and specials with Mesquite Businesses. Mesquite is a great place I have visited and have called home for over 20 years.

WELCOME TO MESQUITE!

This season brings us the ParaLong Drive Worlds. A golf event hosting 44 disabled golfers from the United States and ten foreign countries. We in Mesquite expect this to draw worldwide attention in the coming years. We can be proud they chose our city and our famous Sports and Events Complex to host an activity of this importance. In addition, during the year we host athletes, both young and old participating in golf, baseball, soccer, softball, and boxing.

If sports competition is not for you, we have an excellent community theater, a fine arts center, and a heritage museum.

Like to explore? Mesquite has excellent hiking and walking trails for all levels of athletic ability. Need more? We are just a short drive to Bryce Canyon, Cedar Breaks, Death Valley, the Grand Canyon, both North and South rims, Zion, Lake Mead, and the Valley of Fire.

Still need more? Mesquite is sure to have what you need from casino action, spas, and fine dining.

Whatever you should do in Mesquite, we welcome you if it is only a day or two or a lifetime.

*With Best Regards,
Mayor Al Litman*

THE VIRGIN VALLEY HERITAGE MUSEUM

VIRGIN VALLEY HERITAGE MUSEUM

"The Mission of The Virgin Valley Heritage Museum is to deepen the understanding of the community and visitors about the Virgin Valley, specifically Mesquite, Bunkerville and Southern Nevada. We strive to bring history to life through collections, exhibits, special events, and educational opportunities. We also strive to preserve and protect our local history."

—Mission Statement, Virgin Valley Heritage Museum

The building that houses the Virgin Valley Heritage Museum was built in 1941. The original purpose of the building was to serve the community as a library and museum. The building served as the Mesquite branch of the Clark County Library for about a year. The building was then converted to and used as a hospital. With the $35 donation from each family in town, Dr. Gilbert and Bertha Howe, a registered nurse, went to Las Vegas and bought the medical supplies necessary to open the hospital. The library building was then converted and used as the hospital and only medical facility in town until 1977. After being closed for a few years, it was used as a Boy Scout meeting hall. In 1984, the newly incorporated City of Mesquite reclaimed it and designated it a museum to house the historical treasures of the Virgin Valley. On January 6th 1877 Edward Bunker Sr.'s company arrived in what would become Bunkerville. Construction on the Dam and Irrigation canals began and the pioneers went to work on making the area their home. As the town grew the settlers looked to expand and turned their eyes across the river to the area known as Mesquite Flats. They say that the third time is a charm. That's just the way it was for the proud families who fought to create a life for themselves in Mesquite Flats. Between 1878 and 1882 fifteen families and a total of seventy-one people had moved to Mesquite and were successfully farming the area. The lifeblood of this high desert community was the Virgin River. However, a heavy rainstorm at any time of the year can turn the Virgin River into a raging torrent. Those first settlers found this out in June of 1882 when six miles of irrigation canals were broken in fifty different places by torrents of the afternoon thunderstorms. For a community dependent on this canal, it was a devastating loss. Work began immediately to repair the damage but it was not long until the river had forced everyone out. In 1887, Dudley Leavitt with his wives and children tried to settle Mesquite Flats again. After a four-year struggle against the elements they too were forced to leave. Finally, in 1894, hearty pioneers attempted a third time to tame

Mesquite Flats. Six young families from Bunkerville rebuilt the canal and established themselves permanently along the bank of the Virgin River. In 1898, the town changed its name from Mesquite Flats to Mesquite. Farming has taken place in Mesquite for over 100 years. Success of agricultural development in Mesquite is the result of the Virgin River and the innovative irrigation system created by the early settlers to water their crops. In 1894 many crops were planted in Mesquite. These crops were cotton, grapes, alfalfa, wheat and sugar cane. Also pomegranates and figs were planted and produced very well. For a time, cotton and raisins were the main cash crops in the community.

For much of the late 20th century dairies dominated the landscape. At one time there were five dairies in Mesquite. As the automobile grew in popularity Mesquite entrepreneurs opened motels and campgrounds for travelers and tourists. Tourists increased the demand for agricultural products, such as milk and eggs, and surpluses soon made their way to markets in Las Vegas.

Just like Mesquite has changed with the times so has the Museum; we have branched out into the online world. The Museum catalog is available online at mesquitenv.pastperfect-online.com. We also have an active facebook page where we are able to interact and share the history of the Valley all over the world; you can find us at www.facebook.com/MesquiteNVMuseum. We invite you to visit the Virgin Valley Heritage Museum to experience a taste of the rich pioneer heritage that makes up this great area.

EDUCATION

The College of Southern Nevada (CSN) creates opportunities and changes lives through access to quality teaching, services, and experiences that enrich our diverse community.

The largest and most ethnically diverse higher education institution in Nevada, CSN has three main campuses in Las Vegas, North Las Vegas and Henderson, and multiple sites and centers in its service region. Students have the opportunity to choose from more than 200 degree and certificate options in more than 120 areas of study, including 30 degree and certificate programs available entirely online.

Having a college in the city of Mesquite offers students the option of taking classes locally. Many students go away to college but end up coming back because they felt lost in the university experience or they did not have a direction in mind for their education. Students can take classes with CSN while still in high school through its Jumpstart Program, and many continue after graduating before leaving to continue their education at a four-year university. Some of the benefits of attending CSN classes in Mesquite are the small class sizes, well-trained faculty (no grad assistants as teachers), the array of available general education classes, and the lowest tuition costs of any higher education institution in Southern Nevada. It's a real bargain compared to other public and private options.

CSN's Mesquite site has been an essential part of its community for over 20 years, with offices in such areas as the local high school, a modular trailer, and in a storefront. Approximately nine years ago CSN was fortunate to have the Mesquite Mayor and several City Council members pushing for a permanent location for CSN and we now sit at the site of the old Virgin Valley Elementary School. CSN's building is separate from the rest of the "Mesquite Campus" and offers a computer room, a phlebotomy lab, a nursing assistant training lab, a casino table gaming, and EMT room and six classrooms.

In addition, the CSN Division of Workforce & Economic Development, which facilitates the non-credit classes, also provides workforce training, personal enrichment and customized business training opportunities for the community at large.

Students choosing CSN college classes have the opportunity to stay at home in Mesquite, save money and complete their associate degrees in the traditional classroom setting or online with support from the CSN site and its employees. Future goals for CSN's Mesquite site are increasing class offerings even further, expand the facility and become a customized training center for new and existing businesses.

MESQUITE VETERANS CENTER

The dreams of a few became the realization of many. Yes, the persistence of a few hardworking and determined veterans with a dream developed into our veterans' center. After they got the ball rolling, many others joined in to develop this significant project into what it is today---a beautiful place that serves the veterans and their families with a plethora of activities.

Ed Fizer was the innovator and motivator with the help of founding fathers, Tony Hardway, Jim Brown, Mark Buchannon, and Bob Barquist. Significant assistance was provided by Jesse Marsh, Bill Lilleinthal, Art Hammerschmidt, Roger Gessel, Harold Straley, John Nettle and many others.

Initially a mortgage was taken out through Nevada State Bank to support the center, but due to the generosity of several individuals who donated a motor home and a boat, the center was able to start a bank account. With the unbelievable help and support of Sun City, the center was able to pay off the mortgage in very short order.

A sincere thank you to those who supported and donated, especially Sun City, the Mesquite business community, the Exchange Club and the Eureka Casino and Resort. Also a thank you to the citizens of Mesquite.

Once we got the center, much remained to be done, and volunteers came to our aid. Veterans with experience as pipe fitters, electricians, carpenters and general repair came and helped put our center in shape. It took some time and a lot of blood, sweat and tears, but no negative thoughts as moved forward.

Jesse Marsh and his famous pickup truck moved furniture and anything else we could fit into it to and from various locations. Prior to moving into the center, our service organizations had to scramble to find places to hold meetings. Now the VFW, American Legion, and Vietnam Veterans had its own place to hold meetings and events. Later the Modern Warfare group joined the service organizations within the center.

With the inside looking good, the outside needed attention and our own Don Muse took charge with help from volunteers. Through the work of talented artist Jerry Greenway, we now have a flagpole surrounded by unique insignias of all the services. Thank you, Jerry. What a great job. Various plants beautify the area and we now have a victory bridge near the parking lot.

As time moved on and our organization grew, we knew that we would eventually need to expand. A wonderful gentleman stopped by one day and offered to pay for an expansion of our center. He is a veteran as is his brother, and said he wanted a worthwhile cause to leave some of his assets. We have recently completed the 25% expansion which is now the Bob Meibaum Addition, in honor of the man who made it possible. Much of the expansion was spearheaded by Ken Maynard and Don Muse and we thank them for their hard work and dedication.

The Mesquite Veterans Center is the only center in the United States that houses all four service organizations in one building. In addition, through the generosity of veterans, their families and others we have a significant collection of military artifacts that include weapons, uniforms, awards, documents and other unique memorabilia all in display cases or on mannequins. We are extremely proud of our center and the accomplishments that we have made through the unselfish efforts of our veterans.

The center at 840 Hafen Lane is equipped to allow community groups and residents to use the building on request for meetings as well as private events. To schedule your event contact Center President Ken Maynard (702) 345-3361.

The center also has a Veterans Service Officer, Jim Brown, who can assist with veterans who have issues. He can be reached at (702) 345-3361.

GREATER MESQUITE ARTS FOUNDATION

When asked about the local arts scene in Mesquite, Nevada, residents respond enthusiastically and across the board. "Sure! We've got painters. Dancers too." Another adds "drawing class." A few mention the theatre. All are correct...mostly. There is a vibrant and growing Arts Community here, and the Greater Mesquite Arts Foundation (GMAF) is an integral part of the whole.

In 2007, a group of like-minded citizens came together and established GMAF, a registered not-for-profit corporation in Nevada. In its capacity as a 501(c)(3), GMAF proudly advocates for and helps fund the non-profit arts organizations in the area. In addition to providing much needed venues, the all-volunteer membership serves as the Board of Directors, maintains an office, hosts a monthly Round Table, seeks grants and raises funds, and provides community outreach and education. In the spring of 2014, $10,000 was distributed among the 5 associate organizations.

Early collaboration with the Nevada Arts Council (NAC) helped establish GMAF as a liaison for rural area grants. These monies helped fund the first Mesquite Arts Festival & Fair. Additional grants enabled the Virgin Valley Artists Association to begin their Get Smart and Stay Smart programs working with young children and seniors. Basic grant writing classes were held for the groups, and with their success came funds. The City of Mesquite recognized GMAF as a large grant recipient that could distribute the monies within the local Arts organizations. Despite economic challenges and dwindling resources, the grant seeking, fund raising, communication and coordination within the Art Community and NAC remains constant and strong.

Education is a cornerstone for GMAF and its purpose to enhance public awareness of and support for the arts; and to promote the arts and culture in and around the city of Mesquite. The GMAF membership is actively involved with publicizing and expanding community awareness of their partner organizations.

The Mesquite Arts Council (MAC) acts as a booking agent to identify and bring outside attractions to this area. They have presented BYU music and dance, the Missoula Childrens' Theater, individual artists, and statewide poetry groups. Their efforts enlighten and benefit grade-schoolers to grandparents. An annual Holiday Festival of Trees provides local artists and groups a stage for their skills as well as a fundraising opportunity.

The Virgin Valley Artists Association (VVAA) operates the Mesquite Fine Arts Gallery and Classroom on Mesquite Blvd. Monthly exhibitions have expanded to include state and national - as well as local - talent. Paintings in many mediums, jewelry, pottery, sculpture, fabric, and 'clever ideas' are offered daily. The Gallery showcases this individual excellence and expression in frequently changing displays. Also offered are art and pottery classes. Within the Gallery are lectures, receptions and fundraisers. Volunteer members warmly welcome everyone to "spend some time and perhaps find a gift."

The Mesquite Toes Tap Team (MTTT) may well be the 'most active seniors' in all of Nevada! For 11 years these women have voluntarily spent hours learning and practicing tap dance routines and raising money. Their well-choreographed performances regularly sell out to loyal fans, and new shows are greeted enthusiastically. They accept invitations and travel both near and far: California, New York City, World Cruise Lines, and Branson, MO are all on the itinerary this year. While the average age bounces around the mid 70s, the Mesquite Toes continually exhibit skill, vigor and vitality. They are living proof that healthy exercise leads to a lot of fun living!

The Virgin Valley Theater Group (VVTG) has a myriad of characters comprising their cast of performers. Volunteer members also provide support backstage, help build and breakdown sets, make/alter costumes, and create publicity. All rehearse! This talented group successfully presents recognized comedies, dramas and musicals each year. Their 'seasonal' audience is growing in both appreciation and sophistication. New this summer is a "Fly Willie" Actors Workshop in developmental theatre. Classes and rehearsals will hopefully culminate in a spring performance. Another newborn is the Shakespeare Workshop, a study to help 'demystify, The Bard.' Performances are held in the Mesquite Community Theatre on Yucca St.

The Ms. Senior Mesquite Pageant (MSMP) also builds stage presence and confidence for everyone involved. Adapting to life as a retired senior presents challenges for many. MSMP volunteers enjoy helping their peers rediscover unused talents, develop public poise and become involved with the arts. Interested women of 60 and more are invited into coaching, competition, camaraderie and community action. MSMP is the first local step before statewide and national contests. For many contestants their Pageant has opened new doors to a more vital retirement in Mesquite.

In addition to enhancing the awareness and support of these 5 arts organizations, the Greater Mesquite Arts Foundation is bound to provide venues for the display of the creative talents of performers, artists and crafters. The City and GMAF partnered in a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), for the management of the theatre in the old school complex on Yucca St. With City redevelopment funds, some professional and determined volunteer help, the old cafeteria was transformed into a 200 seat theatre! The opening performance of 'Cowgirls' was on March 6, 2009. The Mesquite Community Theatre committee, MCT is responsible for the daily operations, many ongoing equipment improvements, scheduling and growth. Their valuable Theatre Guild staffs and runs the Box Office, 5 satellite locations, the Ushers and snack bar. The theatre is dark only in the hottest part of the summer.

The Board and volunteers of GMAF continue to be an advocate voice for the arts community in all weather, 365 days a year. They make City Council announcements, publish quarterly calendars, and encourage increased theatre use. The heart of advocacy is done face to face. The arts are for everyone, in some way. Conversation, attendance, invitations to the theatre, and constant support of all the organizations' activities is a way of serving, a way of increasing awareness.

Advocacy and support also embrace those just coming to the Arts Community. GMAF has recently embraced two new groups as Committees within GMAF. The Mesquite Showgirls are an active volunteer group aiding businesses and organizations as cheerful, colorful greeters, ushers, ticket sellers. Their vivacious, outgoing energy is welcomed in Mesquite. Also new to GMAF is the newly formed Southern Nevada Symphonic Orchestra which will debut November 22, 2014 in the Mesquite Community Theatre. This volunteer group, spearheaded by Dr. and Mrs. Selmer Spitzer, will provide a much needed musical sphere in the arts community. The glorious sound of orchestral music is welcomed to Mesquite.

At the end of the performance, the bills must be paid. Unquestionably, art needs to be seen to be appreciated, to grow. In order to support the arts community, GMAF actively seeks grant monies, bequests and donations. They also present an annual Hearts for the Arts Gala in February. Featuring silent and live auctions, entertainment and excellent food, this event is a dress up, sit down, served dinner Special Night Out. Following this months-long effort, all available funds for the year are shared among the nonprofit Arts Community.

The $10,000 distributed this past year reached an Arts Community that is an integral part of the Mesquite Community. Art may be one persons view of everyday beauty brought to your attention. It may be hearing a song echoed in your own heart. Art, in lesson form or seen as a play, may inspire you to discover an exciting new facet to yourself. The money, hard earned by people like yourself, is spent primarily to introduce you to the gifts and pleasures of the arts. You are cordially invited to spend some of your time exploring the arts in Greater Mesquite.

CLOSE TO NATURE

Grand Canyon-Parashant National Monument

Grand Canyon - Parashant's natural splendor provides a sense of solitude to those who venture into its isolated domain. Located on the edge of one of the most beautiful places on earth, the Grand Canyon, the Monument extends over a million acres north of the Canyon to the Nevada border.

Rising in two great stair steps from the Mojave Desert, the dramatic Grand Wash Cliffs create the rugged spine of the Grand Canyon-Parashant. These dramatic cliffs mark the intersection between four distinct ecological communities—the Sonoran and Mojave deserts and the Great Basin and Colorado Plateau. The resulting diverse ecosystem, ranging from stark, arid desert to lush, high plateaus, creates a unique habitat for wildlife.

Deep, intricate canyons, jagged mountains, frozen lava flows and lonely buttes await visitors and offer testimony to the earth's geologic record. Relatively undisturbed Paleozoic and Mesozoic sedimentary rock layers, rich in fossils, offer a clear glimpse of the region's geologic history.

The Monument should be visited with careful planning and respect. This land is vast and wild and there are no services available.

Valley of Fire State Park

Between Mesquite and Las Vegas (approx. 40 miles) lies the Valley of Fire State Park. This 26,000-acre desert is Nevada's oldest state park. The seven-mile drive through the park offers the opportunity for exploring ancient Indian petroglyphs, photographing brilliant red rock formations, spotting the speedy roadrunner and getting a glimpse of a rare kit fox or spotted skunk.

Zion National Park

Zion National Park, in Utah, was established in 1919. It has massive, 2,000-foot high cliffs, separated by narrow hiking trails and riverbeds. The six-mile road through Zion treats visitors to amazing stone formations and red cliffs with majestic names such as Angels Landing, Great White Throne and the Three Patriarchs. The park is open year round and dons a new set of colors for each of the four seasons.

The park may be toured by vehicle, bicycle or tram. Horseback rides are available. Hiking trails are available and three are accessible by wheelchair, as are some of the camping areas.

Lake Mead Recreational Area

Lake Mead National Recreation Area (NRA) offers a wealth of things to do and places to go year-round. Its huge lakes cater to boaters, swimmers, sunbathers, and fishermen while its desert rewards hikers, wildlife photographers, and roadside sightseers.

Bryce Canyon National Park

Bryce Canyon National Park, further north and east of Utah's Zion National Park, is home to 56 square miles of colorful limestone spires. The park is open year round and offers hiking, horseback riding, camping, ranger-led hikes, geology talks and cross-country skiing. Snow is common from November through March and provides an opportunity to enjoy cross-country skiing and snowshoeing.

Gold Butte: Nevada's piece of the Grand Canyon

South of Mesquite where the Virgin River meanders past the mountains into Lake Mead and down to the Colorado River, lies an area known as Gold Butte—Nevada's "piece of the Grand Canyon." Gold Butte is so-called because of the area's wide-open views of lands from Lake Mead all the way to the Grand Wash Cliffs in the Grand Canyon-Parashant National Monument across the border in Arizona. Gold Butte entices the adventurous with names like Rattlesnake Peak, Hell's Kitchen and Paradise Valley. The area boasts 550 square miles for exploration, photography, nature study, and a tranquility only wilderness can provide.

Gold Butte is recognized as an Area of Critical Environmental Concern for the threatened desert tortoise and other Mojave Desert wildlife, such as bighorn sheep, Gila monsters and burrowing owls. The best time to view wildlife is at sunset and sunrise, especially during the spring and fall seasons.

What you will also find in Gold Butte is an experience of the old West: ranching and mining history, past signs of Native American cultures and landscape vistas unbroken by powerlines or other development. You will not find restrooms, water or visitor information.

Recreation opportunities abound in this rugged backcountry! Gold Butte has over 500 miles of designated roads and ATV trails, and includes the Gold Butte Back County Byway. The Byway is a 60 mile loop; the first 20 miles is paved, the next 20 miles is graded and the last 20 miles is high-clearance 4x4 recommended. Be sure to bring your camera, the photography vistas and scenery are incredible in this part of the country. Maps and information are available at www.blm.gov or www.friendsofgoldbutte.org.

Presently there are no designated hiking trails in Gold Butte. Although, the ATV trails may be used for hiking, biking and trail running. Opportunity for cross-country hiking is endless; incorporate a spring in your destination to include wildlife and bird watching. In the fall, the southern portion of Gold Butte offers excellent upland game bird hunting.

The off-road riding season is officially here

With temperatures finally out of triple digits, you might be asking yourself what is there to do when I am not playing golf. Let me clue you in on some of the gems you are missing if you are not on an ATV.

First is the camaraderie, it's all about spending quality time with friends and family in the great outdoors. The world is a complicated and hectic place and when we are out on the trail those things don't matter.

Second, is the spiritual connection. Most of us feel more alive when we are immersed in the great outdoors. The smell of sage or wildflowers or watching one of our amazing sunsets really makes you feel real.

Third, the exploration. If you want a modern day treasure hunt then try geocaching. There are literally hundreds of hidden caches within a 50 mile proximity to Mesquite. If you are wondering what geocaching is all about, then you're not alone.

Geocaching involves looking up gps coordinates that can be found at www.geocaching.com. Once you have located some near Mesquite then it's time to go find them. All you need is a handheld gps, plug in the coordinates and go find the cache. Many of the caches are only accessible by an ATV.

If you don't know where to ride there is a couple of ATV riding clubs that hardly cost anything to join and yet offer organized rides several times a month. St. George Bureau of Land Management (BLM) office on River Road, have several detailed maps that can keep you from getting stranded, as well as showing you designated off road routes.

BICYCLE FRIENDLY COMMUNITY

Mesquite is a great place to own and ride a bicycle. The League of American Bicyclists recently presented a Bronze level award to the city designating it as a "Bicycle Friendly Community". (BFC) The League President Andy Clarke said, "We are excited that Mesquite has made the smart and vital investments to become designated as being "Bicycle Friendly".

This award shows that Mesquite is working towards more safe bicycling conditions. Only 303 communities across America have received the designation which will also allow us to benchmark progress towards improving bicycle friendliness and safety.

A group of Mesquite residents worked with the city staff to discuss such things as bike lanes, signs and pavement markings. This advisory group is currently working to bring some very exciting and fun events to Mesquite.

The climate in Mesquite is particularly good for getting outside and riding a bike. Even on the hottest days, the morning are cool and on the trails you may see a skunk or a coyote or a fox. You will definitely see many rabbits.

The terrain is perfect for bicyclists of any level or skill or strength. One side of town is flat, with the other side offering altitude changes to challenge even a strong rider. If you are looking for variety, try a ride out past Bunkerville on the new path. If distance and endurance is your challenge, try the back roads out toward St. George.

When you are on a bike, you can set your own pace, clear your mind, feel the wind in your hair and just love life in Mesquite.

THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF MESQUITE

THE LEAGUE OF WOMENS VOTERS OF MESQUITE

The League of Women Voters of Mesquite was started in September 2006 by a group of very determined women. By September 2007 they had a board and signed up with the National League. Because they needed 20 members and did not have quite that number they signed up some of the husbands. The membership numbers change as members circumstances change.

The League meets the second Saturday of each month from September through May in the meeting room of Highland Estates at 555 Highland Drive in Mesquite at 10:00a.m. and is open to the public. We have a speaker each month at the beginning of the meeting followed by our business.

The league's Mission statement is as follows:

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization that encourages informed and active participation of citizens in government and works to increase understanding of major public policy issues through education and advocacy.

The league can help you send messages to your elected leaders, set up forums on issues important to you and your family, and arrange public meetings with community leaders.

When you act with other members of The League of Women Voters, your voice is magnified.

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE

COLONIAL PROPERTY MANAGEMENT CHRISTMAS IN JULY

Eight years ago, Christmas in July started as a simple idea-to replenish the soaps, lotions and other essential items that are popular gifts for seniors at Christmas time, just as those Christmas goodies are expected to run out.

This program has grown considerably over the last few years. With overwhelming support of the community, this idea has flourished into an event that provides the seniors at Highland Manor with more than just the bare basics.

Carrie Gomez and the rest of the Highland Manor staff work diligently to provide all of the elves at Colonial Property Management with an accurate list of clothing and shoe sizes of the residents. Included in this list are many special requests or special needs items.

Donations are collected and sorted, and then the shopping begins. All cash and gift card donations are used to purchase any of the items not collected through donations. Gift boxes are then assembled with the resident's special needs and requests in mind and gift wrapped in Christmas paper at our annual wrap party. Many of the women in Mesquite offer their help to wrap each present.

Special requests vary greatly but some of the more popular items are slippers, loungewear and matching sweat suits. Chocolate and snacks are also popular requested items.

As a testament to the time period in which most of these residents grew up, there is always at least one Elvis fan on the list, this year we purchased "Blue Hawaii" for one of our Elvis fans.

Each resident receives shampoo, conditioner, lotion, soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, lip balm and deodorant. Male residents also receive a handkerchief, shaving cream and a razor. Donations have been generous enough in the last two years to be able to include an article of clothing for every resident, which is always popular when the full gifts are opened.

Finishing off the personalized gift box are fun items like crossword puzzles, stationary, crafts, perfumes, colognes, nail polishes, hair accessories, jewelry, scarves and the wonderful knitted and crocheted blankets we're lucky to receive an abundance of every year.

Just like the December Christmas that we are all familiar with, Christmas in July doesn't just stop at gift giving. Along with the generous donations of useful items and money, many of our community members donate their time and talents to this event.

Our local Santa and Mrs. Clause don their winter coats for the summer event, a yearly delight and favorite for all involved. The Messengers quartet lend their wonderful voices for the day and sing carols down the hall, serenading the residents as the gifts are opened. The Mesquite Showgirls add a dose of glamour to the festivities befitting of a desert Christmas in July.

The Highland Manor staff decorate the manor in full Holiday fashion, complete with numerous Christmas trees and lights. Punch, cookies and cake are served in the main halls and Christmas truly comes alive despite the calendar and the temperatures just outside the manor doors.

This program would be absolutely impossible without the community support that it receives every year, and it just keeps getting better and better. Thank you to all that get involved and lend support!

The Colonial Property Management team will begin preparation for the next Christmas in July in March of 2015.

Please save the date; we look forward to seeing you for another successful year. Until then, may your days be merry and bright!

MESQUITE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BOOK SALE A HUGE SUCCESS

ALL PROCEEDS WENT TO FUND A SPECIAL SUMMER READING PROGRAM

Mesquite, Nevada - The Mesquite Chamber of Commerce held a book sale on Saturday, June 21st at the Mesquite Library to benefit a reading program for local students.

The community support was wonderful. Several thousand books were donated and over 1,500 books were sold on Saturday, bringing in over $1,000 for our kids.

The Chamber wishes to thank the community for their support, the Mesquite Library for graciously hosting the event, and all the outstanding volunteers who represented not only the Chamber, but several other non-profit organizations. It was truly a community effort.

All proceeds from the book sales go to the Eureka Community Initiative, a non-profit charitable foundation established by the Eureka Casino Resort. The money raised at this event will help fund a special summer reading program at Virgin Valley Elementary School. The program targets children who are not reading at their appropriate grade level.

The event was such a huge success; another has been scheduled for November 8, 2014. The Chamber will plan to support this event, along with the Mesquite Local Library on an annual basis every November.

1000 FLAGS TO FLY OVER MESQUITE FOR VETERAN'S DAY

Flags will go up for the Exchange Club's "1000 Flags over Mesquite" tribute to veterans on November 8, 2015. This is the eleventh year the field of flags will be erected on Old Mill Road next to the Mesquite Recreation Center.

To raise funds for veterans' issues, the flags can either be sponsored or purchased. Each flag comes with a yellow ribbon that says "in memory of" or "in honor of" so the flag sponsor can dedicate the flag to an individual or group. The sponsor can also decorate the flag's pole or create a memorial at their flag. The day the field is taken down owners can take their flags or have the Exchange Club store them until the following year.

The 1000 Flag display is located on the ball field east of the Mesquite Recreation Center on Old Mill Road. It will be maintained for seven days, November 8th to 15th. All are encouraged to come and walk through the flag field. Read the signage on the ribbons. Come up and talk to whoever happens to be managing the field and get a little information. The field is manned 24/7 by volunteers and flag purchases and sponsorships are available onsite.
