

Dear Amazing Community!

Big news! We are reopening our two spaces this summer! And, we're hiring! This is an opportunity to work with our talented, kind, inclusive Hivery team.

Team Hivery is looking to fill exciting part-time positions for a Community and Facilities Coordinator, in both our Mill Valley and San Francisco/Fort Mason locations.

If you love The Hivery, love working hard, and you're passionate about what we do, you might be a great fit for one of our open positions!

Check the link to the job description below if you think you'd be a great candidate (or you know someone who would) follow the link to apply.

FYI, the submission deadline is June 5, 2021, so don't delay!

The most important part of the job is the capacity to provide a safe, welcoming and customer-service oriented reception to The Hivery guests; support a beautiful member experience throughout the space, with special attention to cleanliness and safety in this new world.

We're also looking for hospitality, hotel, coworking or wellness experience and a passion for personal growth and/or empowerment.

Interested in helping an inspiring community of talented individuals to reach their fullest potential? Love to work hard AND make a difference? Or know someone who this job is perfect for?

Fill out the application by June 5th at the link below.

Click here to access the applications for these new positions.

Kindly read the provided information completely to be sure the position is a fit and indicate which location would be your preference as your primary homebase. Make sure to follow the instructions on submitting your application!

We are looking forward to reopening and welcoming new talent to our team!