

John Eichkorn

John serves as the Director of Compliance and Enforcement at the Kansas Insurance Department, and is responsible for the regulatory oversight of broker-dealers and investment advisers in Kansas. He also oversees the criminal investigations of alleged violations of securities and insurance law as well as fraud investigations. Before joining the Department in 2019, John spent 30 years in law enforcement. He began as a trooper in the Kansas Highway Patrol (KHP), and retired in 2017 as a major, where he oversaw special operations within the KHP. These operations included members of Capitol Police and Department of Homeland Security, as well as aircraft and fleet units. John is a Topeka native and graduated from Washburn University with a Bachelor of Science in criminal justice. He lives in Topeka and has two children.
