Community Profile

The Grand Forks/East Grand Forks area is a place for families to grow and learn together, where families play ball in the backyard and kids rollerblade in the streets. The area is a place for families to thrive and inspire.

People are a little kinder here. Neighbors are happy to lend each other a hand, and strangers say hello. Families are a little stronger here, too. It's all thanks to a community spirit that brings our cities together for many unique celebrations like First Night and Cats Incredible and events like Art Fest and the Potato Bowl. It's a better place, thanks to the people. We invite you to experience it for yourself.

Welcome to picture-perfect neighborhoods, where turn-of-the-century Victorian homes meet modern architecture. Clean streets lie under broad canopies of shade trees. Children still open lemonade stands and adults actually still stop to buy a glass. We cherish our safe communities. We believe that, in a place where neighborhoods are still neighborly, the American dream really can come true.

Our communities offer an environment with the great amenities offered in larger urban areas and the safety and convenience of a small community. The Grand Cities area is impressively cosmopolitan, boasting a regional population of over 97,000.

Grand Forks and East Grand Forks are largely residential. Most of the people who work here also live here, and the predominant form of housing is single-family homes.

Some of the features that make the cities a great place to live are diverse educational opportunities, safety and low crime rate, parks and theaters, and a cost of living considerably lower than that found in large cities.

Greater Grand Forks offers excellent educational opportunities. Grand Forks is home to the University of North Dakota (UND), renowned as being among the nation's best medium-sized doctoral-research universities. UND is one of only 40 universities in the nation to have both a medical school and a law school. East Grand Forks is home to one of two campuses of Northland Community and Technical College, offering certificates, diplomas, degrees, general-education transfer courses, and workforce training and continuing-education programs.

The Grand Forks/East Grand Forks area has a strong and varied faith community. Nearly 50 faith structures adorn our cities, representing more than 16 religions and denominations.

No matter what you're looking for, you've come to the right place. Here you'll find diverse cultural, entertainment, educational, recreational and employment opportunities. You'll also find people you'll be proud to call "friends."

Grand Forks Air Force Base

Located 14 miles west of Grand Forks, the Grand Forks Air Force Base is home to about 2,000 people. Our communities have hosted the Grand Forks Air Force Base for nearly 50 years. The base employs more than 3,000 military personnel and civilians, with an annual payroll of about $130 million and a total economic impact in the community of over $433 million.

In 1998 and 2005, our communities were presented with the Abilene Trophy, the Air Mobility Command's highest honor for recognizing community-based relationships and support. The Grand Cities continue to set the standards and are a model around the country for ideal community-military relations and partnerships. The base was awarded the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award for 2004–2005.

The Grand Forks Air Force Base is home to the 319th Air Refueling Wing. The base has been actively involved in the global war on terror, including participation in homeland defense and Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom, with its members continually deploying overseas.

Grand Forks Air Force Base is currently in a transition process of changing the base's mission from an aerial refueling mission to an Unmanned Aerial System (UASs) mission. The base is expected to receive the Predator MQ-1 and the Global Hawk RQ-4.

Currently, the Department of Homeland Security fly's and operates their Predator's from Grand Forks Air Force Base.

The base offers free tours to groups, maintains a speaker's bureau, and conducts the very popular Friends & Neighbors' Day biannual open house. There are educational opportunities available at the base as well. The education center offers several degree programs from accredited universities across the country — many of which are open to the general public.

The Grand Cities are proud neighbors and partners with the men and women serving at the Grand Forks Air Force Base. The positive relationships we have built have had lasting impacts, as a number of retirees choose to call our community home and are active residents of the Grand Forks/East Grand Forks area.

Public Safety

The cities of Grand Forks and East Grand Forks pride themselves on being very safe places to live. Both Grand Forks and East Grand Forks have a crime index much lower than the national average.

East Grand Forks and Grand Forks both have police departments that are involved in their respective communities. In East Grand Forks, a police department of over 20 officers works closely with the local schools on a variety of programs. The department provides officers to speak to community groups that make a request.

In Grand Forks, a force of nearly 80 officers includes seven community resource officers who are assigned to wards in the city. The Community Service Bureau's philosophy is to interact in a positive way with citizens to not only reduce crime, but also improve the quality of life for everyone.

In addition to normal police duties, the Grand Forks police department administers numerous community involvement programs. These programs include everything from a Neighborhood Watch Program and block parties to refugee training, landlord training and the CounterAct drug awareness program.

Diversity and Growth

Grand Forks and East Grand Forks offer many diverse businesses the opportunity for success and steady growth. This is revealed throughout the communities, from the downtown areas lying on either bank of the Red River of the North, to the outlying Industrial Park in Grand Forks, to the American Crystal Sugar plant in East Grand Forks.

There are approximately 2,500 businesses in the area, employing over 35,000 people. Businesses range from small to very large, and many of them were started right here in the community. Large employers that form a regional base include Altru Health System and the University of North Dakota, as well as numerous banking and financial service concerns and agricultural processing plants. Grand Forks enjoys a 3.8% unemployment rate, much lower than the 9.1% national average.

Although the larger employers tend to be more well-known and have a more readily apparent economic impact, the importance of the small businesses cannot be discounted. Of the nearly 3,500 businesses in the area, nearly half employ less than five people. The region supports these small businesses in a number of ways. Grand Forks is home to two business incubators dedicated to encouraging entrepreneurship and innovation in the region.

The Grand Forks Industrial Park continues to grow and includes over 30 businesses, ranging from a recently expanded Amazon.com call center to Cirrus Design, a manufacturer of light aircraft to LM Windpower, a manufacturer of blades for wind turbines. In East Grand Forks, agricultural processing is one of the main employment sectors.

Shopping and Dining

The retail sector is strong and growing in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks. Grand Forks is home to the Columbia Mall with Macy's and Sears as anchor stores, The Grand Cities Mall and a number of other shopping districts. The community continues to attract numerous retailers to the area. The Market Place shopping area is home to a Super Target, Gordman's, Lowe's and Best Buy. Nearby are a Sam's Club and Super Wal-Mart as well as Kohl's, Old Navy and Bed, Bath and Beyond. In downtown East Grand Forks, you'll find Cabela's "destination retail store." In addition to offering quality outdoor merchandise, this recently renovated 60,000-square-foot showroom is an educational and entertainment attraction, featuring a décor with museum-quality animal displays, huge aquariums and trophy animals featured in realistic re-creations of their natural habitats.

Across the street from Cabela's is a 15 screen theater with stadium seating, rocker seats with movable arm rests. When choosing a restaurant, be assured that everything from fine dining to a quick meal on the run can be found on either side of the river. Across the street from Cabela's in East Grand Forks you'll also find "restaurant row," a collection of restaurants and pubs all with outdoor seating along the Red River. While in East Grand Forks, explore the great cuisine of Mama Maria's Italian Restaurant or Little Bangkok's Thai menu. In Grand Forks, you'll love the great menus and creative dishes of Sander's 1907, Giuseppe's Italian Restaurant, The Toasted Frog and teppanyaki dining at Fuji's Japanese Steakhouse. You'll also find hometown favorites like the Red Pepper, Italian Moon, JL Beers, The Green Mill and everyone's favorites, Olive Garden, Ruby Tuesday, and Texas Roadhouse. If you'd rather grab a quick burger or pizza, variety still abounds. Grand Forks and East Grand Forks have strong family values, and everyone can appreciate the fun pizza places, family restaurants, fast-food and fine dining places that can be enjoyed by all.

Local Leadership

The Grand Cities have a growing economy with strong business leaders. Local and regional businesses are very involved in the community, showing a strong spirit of volunteerism and support for a continued quality of life that keeps most from leaving our area and is one of the driving forces for families returning to our area. There is so much to appreciate in our cities, and there are many innovative and entrepreneurial partnerships in the works to enhance opportunities and foster future diverse growth.

Greater Grand Forks Young Professionals

The local Young Professionals Group, made up of 20 to 40-somethings in the area, is host to many social, professional, cultural and philanthropic events throughout the year. All are a fantastic way to grow your network of friends and professional colleagues, while engaging you in the wonderful attractions of the Greater Grand Forks region.

Agriculture

There are over 2,500 farming operations, with a value of over $600 million in production, in Grand Forks County, North Dakota, and Polk County, Minnesota. The Red River Valley, part of the bed of the ancient Lake Agassiz, is known to have some of the most fertile soil in the world. The soil conditions in the area make this perfect farmland for Industry and consumer demands for high-quality products have led our region and the agriculture industry into the technology age. Common technologies found within a tractor cab include auto-steer, which allows a farmer to reduce overlapping field operations, reducing fuel expense and soil compaction. Another tool in the tractor may be variable rate technology (VRT) and real time kinematic (RTK). Together these technologies allow a farmer to treat each inch of a field as a unique field, and apply the appropriate amount of seed, fertilizer or herbicide to maximize production with minimal inputs. Farmers are working hard to raise a bountiful, high quality product, with a minimal amount of inputs, expense, and environmental impact.

Agriculture is not just about farming anymore, though. The Grand Forks region is home to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Human Nutrition Research Center, a world leader in mineral nutrition research for more than 20 years. The University of North Dakota also houses the Upper Midwest Aerospace Consortium (UMAC), whose Crop and Range Alert System promotes the use of geo-spatial technologies that improve economic competitiveness in the region while also providing environmental benefits.

The Grand Forks/East Grand Forks community is also the birthplace of the nation's first sugar beet farming cooperative. American Crystal Sugar, owned by 2,900 shareholders who raise 500,000 acres of sugar beets, is the nation's largest producer of beet sugar. The vote by cooperative members to purchase the company was made at a meeting held in Grand Forks in 1973.

Something for Everyone

Grand Forks and East Grand Forks provide an abundance of activities for everyone in the family during any season. We are lucky to have four distinct seasons and are able to take advantage of the many recreational and sporting events each season brings.

In the winter, families enjoy snowmobiling, hockey and cross-country skiing; in the summer, they participate in fishing, biking and swimming. Giving the family an opportunity to cheer the home team to victory, the University of North Dakota offers a variety of sports, including several teams that hold national championship titles. A variety of high school and youth sports are available as well.

We invite you to relax by enjoying one of our many parks, taking a walk or riding your bike on interesting paths, taking in one of many annual community-wide events in the Grand Cities, or playing on one of our scenic golf courses.

System-wide, there is an array of opportunities for adults and kids to participate in sports. The two communities offer hockey, baseball, tennis, soccer, football, curling and many other activities.

Our communities enjoy well over 50 parks and recreational facilities, including indoor and outdoor skating rinks in both Grand Forks and East Grand Forks, an indoor playground in Grand Forks, and tennis courts and ball fields in both communities. Many of the parks have warming houses, restroom facilities and playground equipment.

The Greenway

Located along the Red and Red Lake Rivers, the Greenway encompasses almost 2,200 acres of open, natural space and offers year-round recreational activities, including boating, golf, cross country skiing, three disc golf courses and birding. The Greenway is 365 days of the year and is home to many annual events and festivals. An integral part of a comprehensive flood-protection project, the Greenway also offers over 20 miles of asphalt trails connected by two pedestrian only bridges. A campground, located in downtown East Grand Forks features 98 campsites including 70 electric sites with full service hookups (sewer and water). Set in an urban area, the campground is within walking distance to many outdoor recreational opportunities as well as shopping, entertainment and dining facilities.

Year-Round Fun!

WINTER

Cross-Country Skiing

Groomed cross-country ski trails are available in Lincoln Drive Park. The Grand Forks Park District sponsors an annual "Greenway Ski Days," offering families an opportunity to try out cross-country skiing with free rentals and ski clinics. The weekend starts with a candlelight ski on Friday evening, followed by a full day of activities on Saturday. Not interested in cross-country skiing? You'll also have an opportunity to try out snowshoeing. Lincoln Drive Park also offers sledding and ice skating.

Ice Skating

If ice skating is your idea of a great way to spend an afternoon or evening, Grand Forks and East Grand Forks are perfect for you. There are 11 neighborhood ice skating rinks in Grand Forks and another seven in East Grand Forks. Many of the outdoor rinks have access to warming houses, too. Not so big on the great outdoors for your skating pleasure? Not a problem. In East Grand Forks, there are two indoor skating arenas, and in Grand Forks, there are four. Some of these facilities offer some recreational skating time, and all offer ice rentals.

Snowmobiling

Snowmobile enthusiasts have an opportunity to enjoy their sport right in the cities of East Grand Forks and Grand Forks. There are groomed trails and numerous trails located near the two communities. Local snowmobile clubs host fun runs for families several times each winter. With an average of 60 inches of snowfall each year, snowmobiling is a popular pastime from December through March.

Indoor Opportunities

Too cold to enjoy the great outdoors? The Grand Forks Park District offers some recreational activities that can be enjoyed indoors, too. Besides the indoor skating rink, the Park District owns the First Season Community Center, an indoor center with a playground and other youth activities that is open during the winter season for a small fee. The Grand Forks Park District also operates the Center Court Fitness Club, with five indoor tennis courts and four racquetball courts. The recently renovated YMCA also offers numerous fitness and training classes. The Grand Forks Park District, YMCA and Altru Health System have joined to create the "coming soon" Choice Health & Fitness Center. The new fitness center will be 159 Thousand square feet located within a 42 acres recreational park. It will contain two basketball courts, a zero entry fun pool with two large slides, a dumping bay and a three lane lap pool. The new facility will have more than 15 thousand square feet of cardio and fitness areas with state of the art equipment. It will have a room specifically for rowing and another for cycling, a Kids Zone, 2 family party rooms, community spaces and a healthy food deli. It contains one of the largest indoor walk/run tracks in the Midwest. With 6 indoor tennis courts, Choice Health & Fitness will also be home to UND women's and men's tennis. Partners providing services within the facility will include Altru Health System and the USDA Human Nutrition Research Center.

East Grand Forks is home to the newly expanded River Cinema 15, offering fifteen screens with stadium and rocker seating, located near "restaurant row" in East Grand Forks.

SUMMER Parks Facilities

Summer outdoor parks facilities include over 30 tennis courts, swimming pools in communities, many playground facilities, splash parks and basketball courts in numerous neighborhood parks.

Dog Park

The spacious dog park offers dog owners a safe, legal opportunity to exercise their pets off leash within the city limits. Currently licensed dogs can romp freely under their owners care in the large fenced dog park located in Lincoln Park.

Golf

For the golfing enthusiast, there's no need to go far. Grand Forks and East Grand Forks feature five golfing facilities, four of which are public courses.

King's Walk is a world-class golf experience. Designed by Arnold Palmer and his design team, it's the only PGA-rated course in North Dakota or Manitoba. Characterized by rolling terrain with mounds, moguls, native grasses, Austrian pine trees and lakes, this is a public, daily-fee facility available for group outings, special events or golf lessons.

Two other 18-hole golf courses are available, one on each side of the river. Grand Forks Country Club is a private membership organization.

Valley Golf, located in East Grand Forks, offers a unique 18-hole layout that challenges all levels of golfers. The course has a beautiful setting for any type of group function, from a company golf outing to wedding receptions. A pro shop, driving range, snack bar and banquet facilities with a full bar are some of the services offered.

Also within our communities are two public nine-hole golf courses. Ray Richards is a full-service, nine-hole, par 36 course designed by renowned landscape architect Robert Bruce Harris of Chicago and owned by the University of North Dakota.

Lincoln Golf Course was established in 1909, making it one of North Dakota's oldest golf facilities. Originally, the 18-hole, par 71 golf course ran along the Red River of the North. Because of the flood of 1997, the course has been renovated to a nine-hole, par 35 layout.

Disc Golf

Fast becoming a very popular sport in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks, disc golf is a great way to spend an afternoon outdoors. Grand Forks Park District developed one of the first disc golf courses in the state of North Dakota. The 18-hole course is located in Lincoln Drive Park and is free to use. On any given sunny afternoon or evening, you'll find many people enjoying a round of disc golf.

Racing at River Cities

Friday night is race night in the Grand Cities. The River Cities Speedway is one of the nation's best quarter-mile dirt tracks. Featuring outlaw sprints, late models, super stocks, street stocks and Midwest modifieds, River Cities Speedway has racing every Friday from the middle of April through the middle of September.

Bicycling

The communities of Grand Forks and East Grand Forks have over 43 miles of designated bike trails, with additional trails being paved as part of the Greenway project. When completed, the multi-purpose asphalt trails within the Greenway will measure over 20 miles on both sides of the Red River, with two multi-use, non-motorized bridges connecting the trails on the two sides.

Ralph Engelstad Arena

The world-class Ralph Engelstad Arena is described by many as the “finest facility of its kind in the world,” and is the home of the Fighting Sioux. The 400,000 square foot arena boasts granite floors, leather seats and the longest freestanding bars in North Dakota.

Tours are available Monday through Friday at 1:30 PM. For reservations and directions call 701.777.6636.

www.theralph.com

Fishing

Whether you’re looking to put your boat in the water or fish from the shore, opportunities abound in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks. Channel catfish are the Red River’s claim to fishing fame, but the Red River and the Red Lake River boast over 70 species of native fish. With four boat ramps within the two cities, it’s convenient to get your boat in the water. There are also plenty of shore fishing areas for those who want to keep their feet on dry ground.

Boating

Whether it’s trolling for fish on the Red River or just enjoying a day in a canoe or kayak, there are four boat ramps right along the Greenway: two in East Grand Forks, and two in Grand Forks.

Camping

How many urban areas have a campground? As part of the Red River State Recreation Area in East Grand Forks, a new campground offers 72 campsites, including 48 electric sites with full-hook-ups. Campers have plenty of access to multi-purpose trails for walking and biking, picnic areas, and two rivers for fishing and boating. The campground’s unique setting in an urban area offers visitors access to both outdoor recreational opportunities and shopping and dining facilities within walking distance.

Festivals and Fairs

Catfish Days

Each year, people from all over the country come the beginning of August to “Cats Incredible” Catfish Days, a nationally known fishing tournament on the Red River. During the event, 250 anglers in 125 teams compete to earn cash prizes. Approximately 10,000 people attend this event, which provides two day festival with activities for the whole family along the banks of the river in East Grand Forks.

Heritage Days

In East Grand Forks, you’ll want to take in Heritage Village. This historic village works to preserve the history of the Northern Red River Valley. During Heritage Days, held the third week of every August, steam engine threshing machines, museum displays, demonstrations and much more await your visit. Weekend tours are available. Facilities are available for class and family reunions.

ArtFest

Introduce your senses to 150+ artists, unique food vendors in 2 food courts, and 2 days of live performances at the Grand Cities Art Fest held in early June in downtown Grand Forks and East Grand Forks.

Art Fest is a diverse gathering of artistic talent, food and entertainment that highlights our region's unique culture. You can shop for fine art and homemade crafts, spark your kids' imaginations with child-centered craft making, experience live, local music and see Town Square come alive as artists turn raw materials into original masterpieces at "Arts in Action" – all framed by the scenic banks of the Red River of the North.

Grand Forks County Fair

Each July, the Grand Forks County Fair and Exhibition is held at the fairgrounds in Grand Forks. The Grand Forks County Fair features 4-H exhibits, a livestock show, commercial exhibits, home arts exhibits and a carnival with concessions.

Equipment Rentals

Whether it's summer or winter activities that have you excited about enjoying the outdoors in the area, there are a number of local businesses that provide rental equipment, from skates and skis for the winter to bikes and canoes for the summer.

Organized Recreational Programming

In addition to all the opportunities for recreation on your own, Grand Forks and East Grand Forks both offer numerous year-round youth and adult organized sports opportunities for all ages.

University of North Dakota

Envy of the Hockey World

At over 400,000 square feet, Ralph Engelstad Arena features a suite level with 48 luxury suites and 2 mini suites. The ice level has state-of-the-art locker and training rooms for UND, with a huge weight-training area, players' lounge and classroom/study area. The main concourse level has a lobby for ticket sales, administrative offices, the Sioux Shop and a spacious 'traditions area' featuring trophies, photos, and All-Americans.

The arena seats just fewer than 12,000 and is typically at capacity for UND men's hockey games. Wide, spacious concourses serve a variety of stadium food and treats and are complete with television monitors. Thanks to the private donation of Ralph Engelstad, the University of North Dakota has a facility that is truly the envy of all the NCAA and the world! In 2009, the Ralph opened a new full-service hockey training facility: The Hockey Academy at Ralph Engelstad Arena. The Hockey Academy staff consists of former UND and professional hockey players that facilitate training to area athletes of all ages and skill levels.

Besides UND hockey, Ralph Engelstad Arena was instrumental in bringing the 2005 World Junior Hockey Championship to Grand Forks and has also played host to a number of events including the 2008 Men's World Curling Championship and concerts such as Brad Paisley, Carrie Underwood and more!

Court Sports

Opened in August 2004, the Betty Engelstad Center is the home to UND men's and women's basketball and volleyball. "The Betty" seats 4,000 and has some of the same amenities as "the Ralph." There are four regulation-size basketball courts and four regulation-size volleyball courts. Behind the scenes, there are three team locker rooms, a players lounge, and a study area and classroom space.

Gridiron Action

Maybe football's your favorite spectator sport. Grand Forks premier events center/convention facility, the Alerus Center, is home to UND football. In addition, the Alerus Center has the largest exhibit hall between Seattle and the Twin Cities. With seating of over 13,000 for football or soccer and up to 22,000 for entertainment events, it offers space for a variety of events. Besides the main arena, the Alerus Center also offers convention facilities for meetings of various sizes.

Varsity and Community Sports

The University of North Dakota features women's and men's hockey, basketball, world-class swimming and diving, and other varsity sports. With its beautiful facilities, UND is the place to root for the home team. UND also sponsors the Sioux Kids Club, an opportunity for grade school students to meet their favorite players and attend occasional games for free.

Each year, various sports camps for area youth take place on the campus of UND. These include basketball, hockey, swimming, volleyball and football camps. UND staff provide instruction and position sessions, with an emphasis on small-group instruction and good sportsmanship.

High School Sports

Grand Forks and East Grand Forks public and private schools offer varsity sports, including football, hockey, volleyball, basketball, soccer, tennis, track, wrestling, golf, dance and gymnastics. No matter what time of year it is, fans of all ages can find a sporting event to cheer.

Health Care

Altru Health System

Altru Health System is an integrated health system with headquarters on a 90-acre medical campus in Grand Forks. At Altru Health System, over 3,700 employees, 180 physicians, 65 nurse practitioners and physician assistants and 400 volunteers work as a team for the benefit of each patient.

Altru's facilities include a 262-bed acute care hospital, a 34-bed rehabilitation facility, a free-standing cancer center, and a 170-unit retirement living facility. Altru has long been committed to providing high-quality services and has had several "firsts" for North Dakota.

Altru Health System was named first member of the Mayo Clinic Care Network.

Altru Cancer Center is the first in the region to offer TomoTherapy HiArt, the most advanced radiation cancer treatment in the region. They were also the first oncology provider in the state to provide prostate seed implants, 3D Conformal Radiation Therapy and High-Dose Rate Brachytherapy.

Altru's Heart Services was the first in North Dakota to implement biventricular pacing and intravascular radiology, and was among the first providers in the region to offer implantable cardioverter defibrillators.

Altru's Diabetes Center was the first comprehensive, coordinated clinic for people with diabetes and their families in our region. Altru's Diabetes Center is dedicated to a team approach in treating diabetes and is committed to educating healthcare providers throughout the Upper Midwest.

In addition to their specialties, Altru works closely with the University of North Dakota School of Medicine and Health Sciences, Mayo Clinic, and the North Central Cancer Treatment Group on several medical research projects each year.

Doctors Hospital

Scheduled to open early in 2012, Doctor's Hospital will offer a full line of medical services in a 65 bed acute care hospital led by well seasoned healthcare professionals. Physicians Hospital System, the parent organization for Doctors Hospital, ranks at the top in measurable levels of satisfaction.

Services that Doctors Hospital offer include: advanced obstetrics with the newest in luxury private labor and delivery rooms, twelve-bed intensive care unit, surgical suites for pre-op, post-op and out-patient, state of the art operating rooms, laboratory and radiology services, all private rooms on the medical surgical units as well as physical therapy, respiratory, and specialized orthopedic and spine services.

Cancer Center of North Dakota

The Cancer Center of North Dakota (CCND) is located next to Doctor's Hospital on Aurora Medical Park in Grand Forks. CCND opened in 2005 and offers medical oncology and radiation oncology services as well as diagnostic services. CCND offers state of the art technology in radiation oncology with its Varian radiation treatment system. Their medical oncology treatment area is designed so patients may be treated and monitored in a warm and caring atmosphere. CCND offers oncology and hematology treatment services to the Grand Forks/East Grand Forks and regional areas.

Other Services

Although Altru Health System is the largest health provider in the communities, Grand Forks and East Grand Forks offer a wide variety of other health services.

Residents live in their own smoke-free apartment where their right to privacy, choice, dignity and individuality are emphasized.

Music, Theater & Ballet

The University of North Dakota's music department and the Greater Grand Forks Symphony often host local and visiting musicians and offer a variety of musical events. There are choral groups, including a local Children's Choir and Master Chorale; a steel drum band; wind ensembles; and a full symphony orchestra.

The Alerus Center and the Ralph Engelstad Arena have both hosted many nationally known performers, including Tim McGraw, Brittany Spears, Sugarland and Carrie Underwood. World-class performances by musicians and theater groups can be found at the Chester Fritz Auditorium and the North Dakota Museum of Art.

The Grand Forks area has a long history of public theater. The Firehall Theater, the Empire Arts Center and UND's Burtress Theater all host a variety of performances every year. In East Grand Forks, the Community Performing Arts Center offers both school and community performances. Whether your preference is a musical, drama or comedy, you'll find something to your taste right here in the Grand Cities. If you want to be a part of the fun, and not just watch, there are opportunities for all ages. From grade school through high school, area youth have the opportunity to participate in the Summer Performing Arts (SPA) program. An eight-week summer arts program, SPA produces a number of theatrical performances each year. For more experienced actors, the Firehall Theater holds a number of performances each year, with auditions open to anyone, while the Crimson Creek Collegiate Players offer young adults the opportunity to participate in a number of shows each summer.

If dance is what you're looking for, Grand Forks is home to the North Dakota Ballet Company, which offers performances as well as classes for all ages. Dance etc! has been providing Dance education for the Grand Forks community for 53 years. They offer classes in Jazz, Tap, Ballet, and hip hop. Dancers also perform at two yearly recitals, and many events throughout the community.

Museums, Visual Arts & History

The North Dakota Museum of Art is located on the campus of the University of North Dakota and attracts artists and visitors from across the country and around the globe. The museum also offers a summer art program for children, featuring painting, sculpture and other activities. The Hughes Fine Arts Center displays works of local and regional artists. Muddy Waters Clay Center is a non-profit community clay studio serving the Grand Forks area. They offer year-round, high-quality ceramic arts classes and activities for adults and children, gallery events, and outreach opportunities. Commu-

Literature

The literary scene in our region is expansive. For over 35 years, the UND Writer's Conference has drawn over 300 famous writers. This annual event is one of the only writer's conferences in the nation that is free and open to the public. During the five-day event there are readings, panel discussions, lectures, films and a community writer's workshop. The North Dakota Quarterly is a literary journal whose roots extend back to the early days of the University of North Dakota. One of the famous "little magazines" that have been the traditional seed beds of talented writers, it puts UND on the map while contributing to the nation's cultural and artistic life.

Readings of fiction, non-fiction and poetry can be found in bookstores, the North Dakota Museum of Art and at local coffee shops. Children can also get in the act with story time at libraries in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks. Our public libraries strive to connect the community, enrich the mind, and inspire the imagination. Visit the Library soon for your information, technology, and entertainment needs!

Celebrate The Night

Each New Year's Eve, Grand Forks and East Grand Forks areas ring in the New Year at Celebrate the Night. It's a unique, entertaining and safe way to spend New Year's Eve, with entertainment and activities at the Alerus Center. Entertainment options are available for the entire family. For one admission price, you can enjoy performances from regional talent. There are fun activities for the kids, and the evening closes with a fireworks display.

Real Estate

Along with an excellent quality of life, Grand Forks and East Grand Forks enjoy a high quality of housing. Our local builders have been recognized nationally for the quality of work they provide.

Whatever your personal preference and price range, you'll find a wide variety of homes in the Grand Forks and East Grand Forks area. We have a number of new housing developments, from affordably priced homes to luxurious developments. You can find condos, town houses and twin homes. From choosing a Victorian home in the heart of the city to having a new home built to your specifications, it's all available right here. Whether you're a first-time homebuyer or a house-shopping pro, Grand Forks and East Grand Forks offer many beautiful homes. If you're looking to build that dream home, you'll find a wide variety of builders ready and willing to work with you.

Our oldest neighborhoods date to the 1880s and are found along the river. Four historic districts are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Near Southside and Riverside historic districts are primarily residential areas with a mix of design styles from Queen Anne and American Foursquare to Craftsman and Mechanics' Cottages. The Downtown Historic District shows our roots as a "river town;" architectural styles range from early "boomtown" structures to Tudor Revival and Moderns, spanning a period from 1880 to the mid-1950s. The University of North Dakota Historic District encompasses the central campus and most of the sorority and fraternity houses. UND has one of the largest collections of Collegiate Gothic architecture in the United States.

Our local lenders offer excellent financing programs, including V.A., F.H.A., conventional, American Dream and first-time homebuyers programs. You can also find down payment and closing cost assistance programs.

If you're not quite ready for home ownership right now, you'll find over 10,000 rental units in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks, with more construction under way all the time. There's a housing option available for everyone in our growing community. You'll have no problem finding the home of your dreams.

One of the main factors contributing to a great quality of life in the Grand Forks/East Grand Forks area is the education system. The two communities offer extensive, high-quality educational opportunities, from preschool through advanced degree programs and everything in between.

Education

Public and Private Education

Grand Forks and East Grand Forks offer primary and secondary education in different configurations.

In East Grand Forks, four schools serve the 12 grades, with one school for grades K–2, another for grades 3–5, a third for grades 6–8, and a 9–12 high school. Overall, East Grand Forks Public Schools educate over 2,000 young people each year.

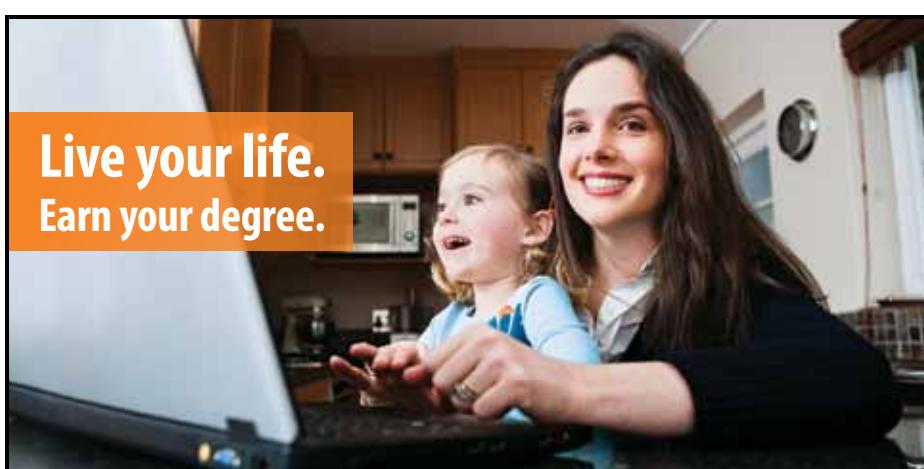

In Grand Forks, a total of 12 elementary schools serve grades K–5, while four middle schools serve grades 6–8 and two high schools and one alternative high school serve the 9–12 school population. Including the Grand Forks Air Force Base, these schools serve over 7,600 students.

Parochial education is also available in our community. Sacred Heart School in East Grand Forks serves pre-K through 12th grade in a Catholic setting. In Grand Forks, two Catholic schools, Holy Family/St. Mary's and St. Michaels, provide education through grade 6. In addition, Riverside Christian School in East Grand Forks offers pre-K through grade 8 education.

Several students from each high school qualify annually as Merit or Presidential Scholar candidates, and Grand Forks students' ACT scores are higher than both state and national averages.

The School for the Blind, located in Grand Forks, provides services for students and adults with visual impairment. Its mission is to function as a statewide comprehensive resource and to work cooperatively with related agencies in providing a full range of services to all people who are blind or visually impaired, including those with multiple disabilities.

University of Mary

The University of Mary offers a satellite location in Grand Forks with a flexible program to meet unique needs. The University of Mary has been a leader in adult education since its founding. They recognize the major obligations of family, work, and community as you pursue advanced study. U-Mary addresses these needs by offering accelerated programs that meet one night a week or online 24/7.

Students can earn an advanced degree in as few as 15 months without infringing on other obligations such as family and work. Through a "cohort" format, students earn their degree with a group of adult student peers. They will stay with these peers until graduating. This results in strong support, work teams, and long-lasting friendships. You can seamlessly switch delivery systems - from online to on-site or on-site to online.

Grand Forks Air Force Base

In addition to the traditional learning opportunities found at UND and NCTC, the Grand Forks Air Force Base offers college degree programs designed for working adults. The Grand Forks Air Force Base Education Office works with eight fully accredited universities to offer nearly 50 degree programs. Enrollment in the programs offered through the Grand Forks Air Force Base is over 6,000 each year.

The programs at the Grand Forks Air Force Base feature eight-week-long semesters and a carefully designed sequential offering of courses that permits students to complete one full year of college by attending classes as little as two evenings per week during 10 months of the year. Students can obtain associate's and master's degrees in just two years and baccalaureate degrees in four.

Educational opportunities in the Grand Forks and East Grand Forks region bring growth, life, learning and employment to the area, and we pride ourselves on the quality and reach of our schools.
