“I ask you as your mayor: How can I work to build this community?”

- Steve Gander, Mayor of East Grand Forks, MN
Eleven Participate in Shark Tank

Shark Tank had 11 contestants participating. The winner receiving the $850 prize was Eric Murphy and his “Krampade product. Krampade is a unique formulation of electrolytes that rapidly mitigates acute cramping and helps prevent chronic muscle cramping, while promoting recovery from competition and exercise. Our formulations introduce a rapidly absorbable form of potassium that quickly resolves acute cramping using our higher dose formulation (4K). When consumed as part of a daily regimen the lower dose formulations (1K and 2K) help prevent the on-set of chronic cramping.”

Second place was Billy Kellar with her Antibacterial Moisturizing Scrub. “While attempting to invent a greaseless lotion, I invented an anti-bacterial moisturizing scrub that lasts as a barrier product even after many washings. I hope to drastically reduce the incidence of nosocomial infections such as MRSA in hospitals.”

Third Place was Chad Lorenzen with The Combo Cutter. “This is a new and innovative way to cut drywall. With our tagline being ‘Roll your way to straighter, faster, safer drywall cuts’ the product aims to improve the effectiveness and safety of drywall cuts. This will be achieved through integrated laser technology that will eliminate the need for messy chalk lines and a roller cutter design that allows the roller to be fully embedded in the drywall during the cutting process for a much safer cut than existing utility knife blades that are commonly used in the industry.”

Special thanks to our 3 Sharks

GFAFB Community Visit this week

Grand Forks Air Force Base continues to move more and more toward a “Global Hawk Base”. Ideally, according to Chamber President, Barry Wilfahrt the Global Hawk Wing would relocate to GFAFB from Beale AFB which is slated to keep the U2’s and also host the new generation of Intelligence and reconicence aircraft. “Beale has enough room for two of the three missions and Grand Forks is ideally suited for the full Global Hawk Mission.” A year ago GFAFB was changed from an AMC base to ACC base which is the first step to such a move at GFAFB.

Members of BRIC (Base Realignment Committee) and BRC (Base Retention Committee) travel to Washington DC next week for a series of meetings to talk about the future of GFAFB. Current and future missions at GFAFB, Grand Sky UAS Park, Custom and Border Protection, and the National Guard will all be topics of discussion. The group will also visit the ND Congressional Delegation to talk base retention strategy and future missions. Next month a similar group will attend the American Defense Communities meeting in Washington DC.

New Sales Tax Being Invested In City Street and Water Infrastructure

Last year, The Chamber led the successful effort to pass a half cent sales tax for roads and water. The Chamber Board felt it is critical for the continued growth and momentum of our community to invest in these two infrastructure areas. The tax went into effect April 1st.

Kudos to the City who are clearly tracking how this new money is being spent. Please check out the special City of Grand Forks Web page where projects supported by the new sales tax are listed. CLICK HERE FOR MORE INFO

Mayor Gander Hosts the Second East Grand Forks State of the City

The Chamber sponsored the second annual State of City last month with a solid crowd of more than 275 attending. Mayor Gander talked about the bright future East Grand Forks has and detailed the City’s top priorities from a fourth bridge over the Red River to the many boards and commission that serve the people of EGF. Thank you Mayor Gander for hosting this event with the Chamber.
Chamber President Seeks Input

Chamber President, Barry Wilfahrt, continues to visit one to two chamber members each day to learn about what they are seeing in the local economy, trends in their business and what some of the community factors are The Chamber should address. With nearly 1100 members, that is a lot of ground to cover. If you are interested in having coffee with Barry please call or text him directly at 701-317-1555. He is always interested in hearing from members.

Chamber Building Update

The Chamber’s largest investment as an organization is its building at 202 N 3rd Street. A new furnace was installed; all new LED lighting will be installed next month on the north end of the building that is rented. Grass has been planted in the small park area on the south end of the building after the Chamber had the brick walls that were falling into disrepair removed and 30 yards of black dirt hauled in. In 2016 and 2017 the Chamber tuck pointed all of the trouble areas on the brick on the exterior of the building.

Looking ahead there is some trim work to do, new LED lighting on the exterior of the building and the park may get some improvements.

Board of Directors is excited to announce the hiring of Alexander “Blue” Weber as their Executive Director, effective mid-April, 2018. Blue brings years of downtown development experience to the DDA including being a co-founder of Alley Alive and NewsGame. His knowledge regarding urban planning and his passion for Grand Forks and East Grand Forks will be great assets for our community and our Partners.

“I have never been more excited to be part of an organization and to bring that excitement to continuing to improve the Greater Grand Forks area. I look forward to working with our Partners to continue to create a more vibrant community, as well as developing the strategies in how to make that happen.”

We will update our Partners with information regarding an event to welcome Blue to the DDA in the very near future. We hope you’ll join us in welcoming him to our dynamic organization. The DDA supports our community through our mission of advocating for the interests of the downtown area in terms of marketing and branding; business recruitment and retention; public policy, managing and maintaining physical improvements, capital projects, programming, and taxing authority. The DDA’s vision is a downtown that is stable and growing; encourages economic development and business diversity; is walkable and pedestrian friendly; and is safe and clean. This is a downtown in which businesses, residents and visitors can take pride, visit frequently, and use to its fullest potential.

Sanford Health East Grand Forks Dermatology is pleased to welcome Abbey Anderson, NP, to our Dermatology team.

Abbey received her Bachelors and Masters of Science in Nursing from the University of North Dakota and is certified as a Family Nurse Practitioner by the American Association of Nurse Practitioners. Abbey’s areas of expertise are skin cancer screenings, acne, cosmetics, eczema, psoriasis, and chronic skin conditions. Abbey along with Alyssa Hoverson, MD, and Rebekah Aakre, NP, will continue providing quality care at our 625 Demers Avenue location offering medical, surgical and cosmetic dermatology services including Mohs Skin Cancer Surgery, Botox, Sclerotherapy, and laser treatments.

Holth’s community service is extensive; most recently, he was the Interim President and CEO of Fargo’s Downtown Community Partnership in 2017, and provided Main Street consulting for several cities and towns throughout Minnesota and North Dakota. Holth was recently appointed by North Dakota Governor Doug Burgum to the Advisory Council for the Office of Recovery Reinvented, and currently sits on the Boards of Directors of The Grand Forks Region Economic Development Corporation, the University of North Dakota Alumni Association and Foundation, Evolve Grand Forks, and The Empire Arts Center, and chaired the Entrepreneurship Committee for the Valley Prosperity Partnership of the Red River Valley. He has been named a “40 Under 40” by Business Watch and Prairie Business magazines and a “4 Under 40” by the Greater Grand Forks Young Professionals.

Holth is also the co-owner of The Toasted Frog restaurants, and will remain in that role.
UND medical students and NDSU pharmacy students train together at School of Medicine and Health Sciences

GRAND FORKS, N.D.—On April 9, more than 70 University of North Dakota medical students and more than 60 North Dakota State University doctor of pharmacy students trained together at the Simulation Center in the UND School of Medicine and Health Sciences. As part of the State Legislature’s Healthcare Workforce Initiative (HWI), both universities’ health programs have been asked not only to expand the number of health professions graduates working in the state, but to cultivate these professionals’ collaborative and interdisciplinary skills. Yesterday’s event was the first time the universities have conducted this type of simulation training jointly, with medical students and doctor of pharmacy students side-by-side.

Choice Financial Hires Gonitzke

Grand Forks, N.D., April 3, 2018 – Grant Gonitzke recently joined Choice Financial as a Credit Analyst. Throughout college, Gonitzke was involved in a variety of organizations including Actuarial Science Club and Math Club. Outside of work, he enjoys golfing and aviation.

Choice Financial is a people first financial services organization that remains locally owned and built around long-term customer relationships, well-rounded products and services, and authentic community banking.

Sanford Health East Grand Forks Dermatology is pleased to welcome Abbey Anderson, Community Recognizes Air Defense Soldiers for Successful National Capital Region Mission

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — The North Dakota National Guard, along with family, friends and community supporters, recognized more than 200 Soldiers from the 1st Battalion, 188th Air Defense Artillery (1-188th ADA) Regiment today during a formal welcome home ceremony at the Alerus Center in Grand Forks. The event, which was open to the public, celebrated the 1-188th ADA’s recent return from the National Capital Region (in and around Washington, D.C.), where they were deployed for a nearly yearlong mission in support of Operation Noble Eagle.

During Operation Noble Eagle, Soldiers with the 1-188th ADA collaborated with personnel from other Defense agencies as part of an integrated air defense system designed to protect airspace around the National Capital Region.

“We offer our deepest gratitude for protecting our nation’s capital,” said Gov. Doug Burgum. “Our pride in this battalion continues to grow with each deployment. You have proven once again that the North Dakota National Guard has some of the best Soldiers in the country.”

Lt. Col. JoDee Aubol, of West Fargo, commands the unit and Command Sgt. Maj. Joshua Entzel, of Bismarck, serves as the unit’s senior enlisted leader. Although the unit is headquartered in Grand Forks, it has units in Bismarck and Fargo. The Soldiers hail from communities across North Dakota, as well as cities in Minnesota, California, Nebraska and Wisconsin.

Warne named Associate Dean for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion and Director of Indians into Medicine (INMED) program at UND School of Medicine and Health Sciences

GRAND FORKS, N.D.—Donald K. Warne, MD, MPH, has been named Associate Dean for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion and Director of the Indians into Medicine (INMED) program at the UND School of Medicine and Health Sciences (SMHS). Most recently the Chair of the Department of Public Health in the NDSU College of Health Professions, Warne assumes the role of INMED Director long held by Eugene Delorme, JD, who retired in June 2017. Joycelyn Dorscher, MD, has served as interim INMED director since last year.

Among other duties, in his new role Warne will support the needs of American Indian healthcare students on the University of North Dakota campus; help provide reservation communities with culturally competent healthcare providers; maintain strong relationships between the SMHS and tribal communities in North Dakota and the surrounding region; and contribute to the School’s scholarly, service, and teaching missions.

“I look forward to the challenges and responsibilities of helping to engage and train the next generation of American Indian healthcare providers,” Warne said. “I am also deeply honored to hold these positions at the School, and I hope to build upon the great work of our previous generations’ leaders, scholars, and healers. I cannot imagine a better opportunity and fit for me personally and professionally.”

An enrolled member of the Oglala Lakota Tribe in Pine Ridge, S.D., Warne received his Doctor of Medicine degree from the Stanford University School of Medicine in 1995 and his Master of Public Health degree from Harvard University in 2002. A prolific scholar and grant writer, Warne is also Senior Policy Advisor for the Great Plains Tribal Chairmen’s Health Board and former Senior Fellow of American Indian Health Policy for the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Center for Health Policy at the University of New Mexico.

Established in 1973, INMED is a national program designed to help support more American Indian health professionals dedicated to practicing in underserved and rural areas, including but not limited to reservations. INMED services include academic and personal counseling for students, assistance with financial aid application, and summer enrichment sessions at the junior high through professional school levels.

Altru Announces New Managers

Grand Forks, N.D. – Altru Health System is proud to announce two new managers: Lisa Tocchio, manager of Home Care and Hospice, and Melissa Ziegler, manager of Behavioral Health.

Lisa has been part of Altru for 18 years and served in various roles including appointment clerk, health unit coordinator, clinic nursing and nursing on Altru’s cardiac inpatient unit. She’s began in Home Health and Hospice as a registered nurse in 2010, and has also served as a case manager and education coordinator. Lisa received her AAS in practical nursing and ADN from Northland Community and Technical College as well as her BSN from University of North Dakota. She and her family, Mike, Fin (14) and Ava (5) and black lab, Lucy (7), are part of the East Grand Forks community and spend time traveling with their son’s hockey team and other sports activities. She also champions Ava, who has Down Syndrome, in developing her skills and celebrating her accomplishments.

Melissa has served as the manager of outpatient psychiatry and was also the interim manager for inpatient psychiatry. She served as the nursing manager of Glenmore Recovery Center from 2010 – 2012, and as a social worker for Marshall County Social Services and Warren-Alvarado-Oslo Schools from 2001 – 2004. Melissa has a bachelor’s degree in social work from the University of North Dakota and an associates nursing degree from Northland Community and Technical College. In her new role, she will oversee the outpatient psychiatry clinic, TEARS and inpatient psychiatry. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her husband and three children, fishing and swimming at the lake, reading, watching movies and continuous learning.
