

State of the Base

Col Curry Addresses the Community

Col Curry talked about the growing China threat, missions at GFAFB and also recognized several outstanding airmen serving our country at GFAFB. Col Curry has been an excellent Base Commander. The base has seen great progress under his leadership. Very visible things like the Space Development Agency Mission, Test Resource Management Mission at Grand Sky and the Global hawk mission on GFAFB. But the biggest positive is the moral and attitude of the airmen. "Whenever you are on the base you can just feel it" according to long time Civic leader James Bradshaw of Strata Corporation.

CHAMBER NEWS

Trio joins DCN technical team

Dakota Carrier Network (DCN) has hired two new employees Nathan Briggs and Andrew Geigle, and team member Tara Taylor has assumed a new role.

Briggs, Geigle, and Taylor are all serving as Ethernet/IP technician I. As such, they are part of the Network Operations Center team, supporting DCN's state-of-the-art carrier Ethernet and IP networks. Responsibilities include network monitoring and provisioning, trouble analysis, receiving and resolving trouble reports, and administration of equipment. Briggs and Taylor are based out of DCN's Network Operations Center in Bismarck and Geigle will work from Fargo following training in Bismarck. All will serve customers throughout the state.

Nathan Briggs

Briggs has worked as an information systems specialist in the mining industry since 2016. He has worked in a variety of areas including server and network administration, network design, system security, and technical support. Briggs earned an associate degree in computer information systems from Bismarck State College and a bachelor's degree in management information systems from the University of Mary in Bismarck.

Andrew Geigle

Geigle has been an information systems maintainer for the U.S. Army/North Dakota National Guard since 2017. Duties have included work with information systems and equipment, managing networks, operating diagnostic equipment, and ensuring continuity of power to equipment. With the NDNG, Geigle completed Advanced Individual Training in network management. He is currently working toward a bachelor's degree in cyber security systems through Southern New Hampshire University.

Tara Taylor

Taylor joined DCN in 2015 as an application administrator and late in 2021 shifted to application analyst. Her previous roles at DCN included responsibilities for administering software applications to create reports based on statistical information, configuring and maintaining network monitoring, and creating and maintaining custom dashboards for external and internal users. Prior to joining DCN, she served as a technical support trainer and application analyst. Taylor earned an associate degree in computer support from Bismarck State College and is a certified MEF Carrier Ethernet Certified Professional (CECP).

Rosemary Erickson Johnsen has been named the next Senior Vice Chancellor

*Rosemary Erickson
Johnsen*

The University of Minnesota Crookston is pleased to announce Rosemary Erickson Johnsen, Ph.D., has been named the next Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. Johnsen currently serves as the division head for Business, Arts, and Education, and will start her new role May 1, 2023.

Johnsen came to Crookston in 2022 and previously served as the associate provost and associate vice president of academic affairs at Governors State University in Chicago, Illinois. In those roles, she was on the leadership team that oversaw the Higher Learning Commission re-accreditation for their campus, the university's strategic plan, and a major strategic enrollment planning process. Prior to her most recent appointments, Johnsen co-directed study abroad programs for Michigan State University's Office of International Studies and Programs; she also served as professor of English for 12 years at Governors State, and as a visiting assistant professor at Michigan State and Grand Valley State University.

DCN hires Syverson as CFO

Kristin Syverson

Dakota Carrier Network (DCN) has hired Kristin Syverson as its new chief financial officer (CFO).

Syverson's diverse background includes finance, marketing, and operations in the manufacturing, engineering, and non-profit sectors. These combined with a decade of CFO experience have made her into a leader with strong analytical, change management, and strategic planning skills that will help DCN thrive.

The CFO is an integral part of the DCN executive team, accountable for a comprehensive set of financial responsibilities. The CFO establishes and maintains the company's financial policies and procedures, providing operational and administrative direction for accounting, budgeting, purchasing, billing, collections, and cash management. As CFO, Syverson is also responsible for ensuring soundness of the company's financial structure and managing DCN's relationships with financial institutions and governmental agencies. She will be based out of corporate headquarters in Fargo.

EDC Awards Molmen With 2023 Impact Award

Dave Molmen

The Grand Forks Region Economic Development Corporation (EDC) board of directors announces Dave Molmen as the 2023 Klaus Thiessen Impact Award recipient. The award was presented to Molmen at the EDC annual meeting held at the Alerus Center on Thursday, March 30. Annually, the board recognizes an outstanding business or individual that has made a positive impact on economic growth, vitality, and prosperity in the Grand Forks region.

“I have had the good fortune of working with Dave during our time together at Altru. He is an extremely dedicated and passionate leader.

It is an honor to be able to present him with the 2023 Klaus Thiessen Impact Award,” said Meghan Compton, EDC Board Secretary, and Treasurer. “Dave’s impact in the Grand Forks region is unsurmountable, especially through his 40-year career within the health system.”

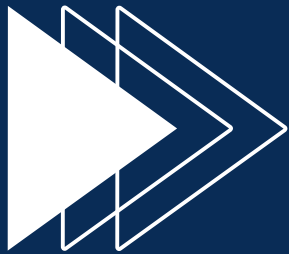

Among Molmen’s accomplishments, the largest includes serving as a leader of the Altru Health System and its predecessor organizations for more than 40 years. In the beginning, Molmen was one of the principal architects in the merger of United Hospital and the Grand Forks Clinic in 1997 which led to the creation of the Altru Health System. Soon after the merger, he served as the first Chief Operations Officer and was quickly put to the test as he directed hospital operations through the historic flood fight of 1997 and the massive recovery that followed.

“When it comes to being honored with the award, the first word that comes to mind is unworthy because the accomplishments in my career have always been completed with a group of people,” Molmen stated, “Working together is the hallmark of the Grand Forks community – we put differences aside and make the community better for the common good.”
