

McGalliard named Ambassador of the Quarter

Kellie McGalliard, director of sales for the Clarion Inn and Conference Center, was named Ambassador of the Quarter by the Valdosta-Lowndes County Chamber.

The Chamber currently has 42 Ambassadors who are professionals from local Chamber businesses. The Ambassadors serve as the public relations arm of the Chamber by participating in ribbon cuttings, ground breakings, member crashers, Leading Business of the Week and other social events.

McGalliard In addition to the vital role they play as Chamber Representatives, they are also encouraged to introduce themselves and their businesses to the members they visit which provide additional networking opportunities. The Chamber's Ambassadors can be recognized by their green jackets which symbolize prosperity, something they wish for every Chamber member.

If you are interesting in becoming an Ambassador, contact Sandy Prentiss at the Chamber at SPrentiss@ValdostaChamber.com or 229-247-8100.
