DOWNTOWN SANDERSVILLE GA

Art & Craft Vendor Application

ABOUT OUR FESTIVAL.....

1956 was an important year for Washington County, because it was in the fall of that year that the county staged its first Kaolin Festival, a celebration that has continued today. The first festival, chaired by Howard Sheppard, featured a golf tournament, kaolin mine and plant tours, street dance and parade. The annual Kaolin Festival Parade was an outgrowth of a high school homecoming project initiated in Hazel Bedgood Metts' journalism class in 1952. Today we have a number of events that are scheduled during the week prior to the festival, and we invite you to come and enjoy these events.
