

DISCOVER STEAM DAY

Saturday

FEBRUARY 28, 2026

10 am - 3 pm

at the National Museum of Nuclear Science & History

Looking for the perfect formula for family fun?

Join us for a day of fun with exciting and interactive STEAM activities. Electrifying experiments and entertaining hands-on fun. Special guests scheduled to attend include Orbit, the beloved mascot of the Albuquerque Isotopes (11am) and step back in time with renowned Einstein impersonator, Thomas Schuch from 10am-noon.

It's big, it's bold, and it's hands-on!

Included with your paid museum admission | Members are free.
