BE PART OF THE DISCUSSION

Join us for a collaborative conversation with energy industry leaders, employers, and workforce partners to discuss the real challenges impacting your business and help shape strategies to meet the current and future needs of the agriculture sector.

We value your input! By sharing your insights, you'll help identify common high-demand, unfilled positions; pinpoint barriers to hiring; help guide the development of strategies that strengthen the talent pipeline, support economic growth, and ensure New Mexico's workforce is equipped to meet the demands of energy producers—whether in oil, gas, wind, solar, or other emerging sectors.
