Mutual funds, variable annuities and unit investment trusts (UITs) are offered by prospectus. You should consider the investment objective, risks, and charges and expenses carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information. Your Edward Jones financial advisor can provide a prospectus, which you should read carefully before investing.

~ Annuities are long-term investments designed to provide tax-deferred savings for and during retirement. Withdrawals before age 59½ may be subject to a 10% early withdrawal penalty and may also be subject to a contingent deferred sales charge.
