Join us for a soulful evening of creativity and self-love! In a world that often celebrates romantic love, we're flipping the script to honor the most important relationship of all – the one with yourself! At Pottery for One, you'll indulge in a therapeutic pottery-making experience, guided by our expert instructors. As you shape and mold your clay, you'll tap into your inner wisdom, letting go of stress and embracing self-love.

At the end of the night ensure that you write down your name and number so that we can message you on when your pots will be ready for pick-up.

Building a Movement:

Equipping Nonprofits to Lead, Serve, and Succeed

Join us for Building a Movement, an engaging panel discussion designed for nonprofit leaders, board members, and community advocates. This interactive conversation will explore how strong leadership, board engagement, and community collaboration can drive meaningful change.

What to Expect

This event will feature an open and dynamic panel discussion with experienced nonprofit leaders. They'll share real-world insights, tackle tough questions, and offer practical advice on navigating challenges in the nonprofit sector.

Key Topics Covered

- Effective strategies for nonprofit executives and staff
- Building and energizing a mission-driven board of directors
- Strengthening partnerships and community collaboration

Meet the Panelists

Gain valuable insights from nonprofit leaders who are making a difference in their communities:

- Tiana Quick – CEO, Boys and Girls Club of Central Texas
- Shellie Hassell – Executive Director, Central Texas Youth Services
- Brian Hawkins – Executive Director, Cove House Emergency Homeless Shelter
- Raymond Cockrell – Executive Director, Food Care Center--Killeen

These panelists will share real-world experiences, lessons learned, and strategies for building a movement within their organizations and communities.

Who Should Attend?

This workshop is perfect for:

- ? Nonprofit Executive Directors & Leadership Teams*
- ? Board Members & Advisors*
- ? Community Leaders & Advocates*

Why Attend?

- Get Real Insights – Hear firsthand experiences from nonprofit leaders who have faced and overcome challenges.
- Ask Your Questions – Engage in a meaningful conversation and get practical advice for your organization.
- Build Connections – Network with other nonprofit professionals and community leaders.

? Build the movement that transforms lives and strengthens communities!
