On Golden Pond

by Ernest Thompson

For forty-eight years, Norman Thayer and his energetic wife, Ethel, have been spending the summers at their lakeside home on Golden Pond, fishing and watching for loons.

This year, their divorced daughter, Chelsea, her new fiancé and his thirteen-year-old son make an unexpected visit. When Norman develops an unlikely friendship with the boy, it reinvigorates the grumpy retired professor and highlights the rocky relationship between this father and his now middle-aged daughter. As the summer days grow short, there is still time for their family to heal, and to rediscover the joys of everyday life.

Church Basement Ladies: Away in the Basement

by Drew Jansen & Greta Grosch

Those charming Church Basement Ladies are back for the holidays with more of their musical comedy merriment. AWAY IN THE BASEMENT finds the gals in 1959, helping the kids get ready for their Sunday School Christmas program. As they discuss the politics of the pageant and mend old bathrobe costumes, little do the ladies know what surprises are in store for them, especially as the widowed pastor contemplates spending Christmas with someone new.

Church Basement Ladies: Away in the Basement

by Drew Jansen & Greta Grosch

Those charming Church Basement Ladies are back for the holidays with more of their musical comedy merriment. AWAY IN THE BASEMENT finds the gals in 1959, helping the kids get ready for their Sunday School Christmas program. As they discuss the politics of the pageant and mend old bathrobe costumes, little do the ladies know what surprises are in store for them, especially as the widowed pastor contemplates spending Christmas with someone new.
