Charleston Community Theatre and Charleston Elks Lodge #623 are teaming up to present two evenings of dinner theatre for the Christmas season's entertainment. Patrons will arrive at 6:00 p.m. to enjoy a ribeye steak with baked potato, salad bar, rolls and dessert, and then go to the lower level of the Elks Lodge to view CCT perform Thornton Wilder's one-act play, The Long Christmas Dinner. The Long Christmas Dinner showcases ninety years of Christmas dinners in several generations of one family.
