Reputation/Listing Management

Listings and reputation go hand in hand. Without listings, your business wouldn't have any ratings or reviews... But wait, what is a listing? There are a variety of listing sites out there, some of which you should be pretty familiar with. Google Maps, Yahoo Local, Bing Places, Yelp, Dexknows.com, and Yellowpages.com just to name a few. When consumers search for local solutions to their problems, search engines like Google are more than happy to scour the web for online listings of businesses like yours. In this seminar, you will learn how online listings and reputation can make a big impact for your business in the future!
