Glenfiddich Inn is a novel set in World War 1 era Boston and New York. It's a new age of breathtaking inventions - the Model T has just given Americans a new way to move about their country. Two of the women characters in the novel are thrilled about a curious device that is also destined to change the world. It is called "radio". The first silent movies, the emergence of Babe Ruth and a changing morality - are all unfolding as the most disastrous war in history slowly creeps across the Atlantic Ocean.
