Stevie Ray Vaughan Tribute

Fairfield Arts & Convention Center

200 North Main Street

Fairfield, IA 52556

7:30pm

With his astonishingly accomplished guitar playing, Stevie Ray Vaughan ignited the blues revival of the 1980s. He bridged the gap between blues and rock like no other artist had since the 60s with his uniquely eclectic and fiery style. From 1983 to 1990 SRV was the leading light in American blues, consistently selling out concerts while his albums went gold. His tragic death in 1990 at the age of 35 cut short a brilliant career as he was on the brink of superstardom.

MacDougal Street West is a Peter, Paul, and Mary tribute band for larger venues and for local performances. The band members are Ron Skelton, Mary Alberts, Rick Shore, and Bill Rice.

During the early 1960's, the new flowering of a vibrant musical tradition was rooted in Greenwich Village. Folk singers and songwriters, now legends of that era could be heard nightly in the cafes stretching along fabled MacDougal Street. Today great folk music still lives on in MacDougal Street West. The urban vibe of Greenwich Village emanates now from Arizona and elicits memories of exciting times past and hopes for brighter days ahead.
