Mamma Mia! celebrates the hilarious story of a young woman's search for her birth father with hits by ABBA. This sunny and funny tale unfolds on an island paradise in Greece. On the eve of her wedding, a daughter's quest to discover the identity of her father brings three men from her mother's past back to the island they last visited 20 years ago. The story-telling magic of ABBA's timeless songs propels this enchanting tale of love, laughter and friendship, creating an unforgettable show.

Licensed to SJCT by Music Theatre International.

The multi-talented instructor, Taylor Bruce is giving a portrait workshop as part of the complete experience of the Go Figure! exhibition at the San Juan Islands Museum of Art (SJIMA). The workshop, A Portrait in Charcoal, will take place on two consecutive Saturdays, November 6 and 13th from 1-4 pm.

The portrait workshop will introduce students to the concepts important in creating realistic portraits. The class is designed for intermediate artists who have developed solid drawing skills and are comfortable with standing or sitting at an easel. While it is helpful to have some experience in portraiture, the information covered will allow beginners in portrait work to participate.

Taylor is an experienced, knowledgeable and enthusiastic instructor who enjoys sharing her passion for painting, drawing and printmaking. She has taught at the Spring Street International School since 2005 and at her private studio for fourteen years. Currently, she pursues her career while enjoying the experience of enriching young lives through the study of art.

Her accomplishments include having illustrated over 40 children's books. She studied at the Art Academy of San Francisco and while a student, she was awarded the prestigious New York Society of Illustrators student award.
