Family Fun Sojourn
French Azilum Historic Site
469 Queens Road
Towanda, PA 18848

The Endless Mountains Heritage Region (EMHR) will be hosting a Family Fun Sojourn on Saturday and Sunday, June 5 and 6.

Participants will paddle 20 miles over the two-day period from the Wysox Township River Access Launch to Endless Mountain Outfitters in Sugar Run. Participants will meet at the French Azilum Historic Site on Saturday morning by 8 a.m. to set up camp and be shuttled to the launch site in Wysox. Highlights of the weekend expedition will be environmental talks from our river guides, a history presentation from the French Azilum Historic Site where paddlers will camp on Saturday evening! Following our arrival at French Azilum (around 4:30 p.m.), participants will enjoy the educational presentations, evening music from The Sorters, a bonfire and a family film on the big screen, provided by the Keystone Theatre! All meals on the trip are included, but feel free to bring personal snacks! This is a great opportunity to get out on the river with your children and learn about paddling safety, environmental stewardship, local history and simply have fun! Event proceeds will benefit the Keystone Theatre. COVID-19 guidelines will be followed, which includes masks where necessary and social distancing. Transportation to the launch site will be provided. Prices to register vary based on whether you will be renting a canoe/kayak or bringing your own watercraft. Early bird registration tickets, ending May 14, will be $100 for those with their own watercraft, $125 for those needing to rent a single kayak, and $140 for those renting a canoe/tandem kayak. After May 14, tickets will be $120 for those with their own watercraft, $145 for those needing to rent a single kayak, and $160 for those renting a canoe/tandem kayak. Participants should wear appropriate attire and bring a tent, sleeping bag, sunscreen, bug spray, snacks, water and any other essentials.

Summer Heritage Paddle I

Susquehanna Kayak & Canoe Rentals

2374 Sullivan Trail

Falls, PA 18615

The Endless Mountains Heritage Region (EMHR) and Susquehanna Canoe & Kayak Rentals are teaming up for a benefit paddle that will take participants on a 10-mile journey from Tunkhannock Borough to Falls Township in Wyoming County!

Whether you are an experienced paddler or just a beginner, this Summer Heritage Paddle is for you!

Register online and arrive at Susquehanna Canoe & Kayak Rental (2374 PA-92, Falls, PA) by 9 a.m. on July 10 to sign-in. Paddlers will be shuttled to Tunkhannock Riverside Park for a short presentation with the Countryside Conservancy and then launch downriver to Whites Ferry for lunch and a history lesson about many historic sites along this stretch of the river. We'll paddle back to Susquehanna Canoe & Kayak Rental for a barbecue dinner at 5 p.m. as well as a tasting with Nimble Hill Winery & Brewery. This event will benefit the Wyoming County Historical Society.

Registration is $60 for those bringing their own watercraft and $100 per person for those renting a kayak or tandem kayak/canoe.

This registration fee includes your donation to the Historical Society, insurance, the dinner, tasting and educational programming.

Due to alcohol being served, this paddle is for adults 21 and over.

Paddlers should bring appropriate footwear and clothing, lunch/snacks, sunscreen, and a supply of water.

Wyalusing Valley Volunteer Fire Dept.'s Annual Carnival

Wyalusing Borough Park

05:00 PM - 10:00 PM EST

2021 Wyalusing Carnival Announcement:

If things keep opening up we will be holding our annual carnival from August 10-14, 2021.

If you would like to volunteer contact the WVVFD Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/WyalusingFireDepartment>

We begin setting up two weeks before and could also use volunteers to help us during set up, during the actual event and after the event for tear down.

With this being said, this is in hopes that things keep opening up.

If this does not happen we will have to cancel again.

Let's all hope we can make this happen.
