CÃ©cilia
Beale Street Theater
302 E. Beale St.
Kingman, AZ 86401

7:00 PM

Traditional music that causes a wonderful stir and fills to overflowing every venue – that is Cécilia! Widely recognized as three of Canada's finest musicians, it is a pleasure to see how much enjoyment Timi Turmel, Erin Leahy, and Louis Schryer find in playing together. While honouring their heritage as Cécilia, their music making has an undeniably fresh and high-spirited sound.

They bring the best of many musical worlds together in their explorations of traditional, Celtic and Quebecois music. Every one of their pieces is skillfully arranged and highlighted with influences from contemporary, classical, jazz and swing styles. Cécilia's recent debut album Accent is an impressive offering full of vibrant rhythms and melodies, all resonating with a unique warmth and richness of expression.

Each performance by Cécilia is a call to come out and share – not only in the joy of three dedicated musicians making music together but also in creating with Timi, Erin, and Louis a unique and memorable musical experience. You'll find yourself with a smile that lasts long after the final notes of Cécilia's accordion, piano, and violin have melted away.

Alash
Beale Street Theater
302 E. Beale St.
Kingman, AZ 86401
7:00 PM

Alash are masters of Tuvan throat singing, a remarkable technique for singing multiple pitches at the same time. They are also masters of traditional Tuvan instruments. They are deeply committed to traditional Tuvan music and culture, and at the same time they are fans of western music. Believing that traditional music must constantly evolve, these talented musicians subtly infuse their songs with western elements, creating their own unique style that is fresh and new but still true to their Tuvan musical heritage.

What does throat singing sound like? "Imagine a human bagpipe—a person who could sing a sustained low note while humming an eerie, whistle-like melody. For good measure, toss in a thrumming rhythm similar to that of a jaw harp, but produced vocally-by the same person, at the same time."

Experience this unique musical journey with the Beale Street Theater. Tickets are $35, $25 and $15. Students are $15.

Day of Caring 2025 –10th Anniversary Celebration

Are you ready to be part of something truly special? April 4, 2026 marks the 10th year of River Cities United Way's Day of Caring—a milestone event that has brought our community together for nearly a decade of service, pride, and positive change. Even better, this year's event takes place the day before Easter, making it the perfect way to kick off a weekend of giving, connection, and community spirit.

For ten years, River Cities United Way—along with the City of Kingman, The Standard, the Kingman Downtown Merchants, and the Kingman Chamber of Commerce—has hosted community improvement projects that bring together more than 100 volunteers and as many as 300 participants on a single day. Together, we've shown what it means to care for and invest in the place we call home.

Teams and individuals return year after year, and we'd love for you to join us for this milestone celebration. With 14 cleaning zones ranging from small to large, every volunteer can find the perfect spot to make a visible difference.
