Lunch & Learn: Pest Control for Business Owners: What It's Actually Costing You (and How)
Corvallis Chamber of Commerce

420 NW 2nd St

Corvallis, OR 97330

11:30 AM - 01:00 PM PST

Pest Control for Business Owners: What It's Actually Costing You (and How to Fix It)

This presentation gives local business owners a clear, practical understanding of how pest problems actually develop, and more importantly, how to prevent them. Rather than focusing on chemicals or quick fixes, it breaks down the real drivers behind common issues like ants, rodents, and flies, and shows how simple operational changes can reduce risk, protect your reputation, and avoid costly disruptions. Attendees will walk away with actionable steps they can implement immediately, along with a better understanding of what effective, professional pest management should look like.

Adam Hiddleson

Adam Hiddleson is the Technical Director at Good Earth Pest Company, an Associated Certified Entomologist (ACE), and holds the NPMA PRO certification. With over 15 years of experience in the pest management industry, Adam specializes in helping businesses solve pest problems through practical, long-term strategies rooted in Integrated Pest Management (IPM).

Rather than relying on quick fixes, he focuses on identifying the conditions that allow pests to thrive, helping businesses reduce risk, protect their reputation, and create healthier environments. Adam works with a wide range of commercial clients throughout the Willamette Valley and is known for turning complex pest issues into clear, actionable guidance.

At a Death Café, people – often strangers – gather to drink tea, enjoy snacks, and discuss death. Everyone has an opportunity to share ideas, opinions, and questions about death in a supportive and safe environment. There is no agenda. This is a discussion group, not a grief support or counseling session.

We meet the third Thursday of each month from 4:00-5:30 pm at Lumina. Participation is free.

Benton Community Foundation

340 NW 5th Street

Corvallis, OR 97330

11:30 AM - 01:00 PM PST

Land provides the resources, labor brings the effort, and capital fuels the growth. Together, they form the foundation of every successful business and thriving economy. When land, labor, and capital align in Corvallis's economic climate, a resilient and innovative local economy emerges.

Panelist:

Rebecca Robinson - Associate Vice President for Economic Development and Industry Relations at OSU

Amy Burbee - Office of Work-Based Learning Faculty Department Chair at LBCC

Christopher Jacobs - Economic Development Manager, City of Corvallis

Chamber Business Forum: Land, Labor, & Capital

This forum will highlight:

Land: Core Focuses, Key Challenges in Corvallis, OSU's Role, Opportunities & Solutions

Define what 'site readiness' means in today's economic development landscape

Explain difference between available land vs. development-ready land

Infrastructure limitations (utilities, roads, etc.)

Zoning and permitting timelines

Limited inventory of industrial-ready land

University-driven innovation and research partnerships

Opportunities to align land use with innovation economy

Public-private partnerships to prepare land

Strategic investment in infrastructure

Regional collaboration to expand readiness

Labor: Core Focuses, Current Workforce Gaps, System Challenges, Opportunities & Solutions

Overview of workforce pipeline in Benton County

Role of community colleges in workforce training

Shortage in skilled trades (construction, manufacturing, etc.)

Mismatch between employer expectations and worker readiness

Decline/shift of SBDC support toward trades

Capacity limitations in training programs

Expand employer partnerships

Increase apprenticeship and hands-on training programs

Align curriculum more directly with local industry needs

Capital: Core Focuses, Current Tools, Challenges, Local Reality, Forward-Looking Solutions

*Explain economic development tools available in Corvallis
Connect land, labor, and capital constraints
Tax increment financing (TIF)
Enterprise zones and local incentives
Projects not penciling due to high costs
Competition from nearby cities with stronger incentives
Examples of stalled or successful projects in Corvallis
How workforce and land issues affect financing viability
Potential new or expanded incentive tools

Corvallis Emerging Professionals @ Greenhouse Coffee + Plants

Greenhouse Coffee + Plants

308 SW Monroe Ave

Corvallis, OR 97333

05:30 PM - 07:00 PM PST

Our 2025 committee members worked through many ideas and options to bring us to our latest major announcement. As of January 2026, we are the 'Corvallis Emerging Professionals'. We want to focus on casual networking and be welcoming to all Corvallis professionals regardless of age. Our audience aim is the new-to-career professionals who want to check out the Chamber's networking groups and are trying to get their roots growing here in Corvallis. We want to lean into our community, look for opportunities to volunteer, highlight new businesses, be a resource to employees and employers, further our careers, grab a drink, and make new friends.

This month we will be hosted by Greenhouse Coffee + Plants! See you there

Corvallis, OR 97330

11:30 AM - 01:00 PM PST

Taking the Sedentary out of your Desk Job

If you have aches, pains, fatigue, or simply can't do the things you want to do at work and in your personal life - this is the lunch and learn for you! Local PT and clinic owner, Dr. Dane Happeny brings real solutions for real desk workers, straight from his work to your lunch break. You'll leave with new strategies to apply starting right when you get back to work that day! Learn how to mix in some "movement snacks" and improve your flexibility, strength, and overall 6 Pillars of Health to help you feel your best at work, but also in your recreational and every day life.

Dr. Dane Happeny, PT, DPT, OCS, CF-L1

Clinic Operator, Physical Therapist

Healing Motion Physical Therapy - Corvallis

Dr. Dane Happeny is a Board Certified Orthopedic Physical Therapist and the Clinic Operator of Healing Motion Physical Therapy's Corvallis location. Dane has been a PT in Corvallis since 2013 and holds dual orthopedic specialist certifications — through the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties (OCS) and the Institute of Clinical Excellence (CERT-Ortho), as well as his CrossFit Level 1 Trainer certification — and brings over a decade of hands-on experience helping move his patient to excel toward fitness and their own personal goals.

A proud Oregon State alum, Dane works with everyone from competitive athletes to everyday desk workers navigating the aches and pains that come with modern work life. He's passionate about practical, evidence-based solutions that people can actually use — not just in the clinic, but in their every day life routines. He preaches that "life's an exercise" and "the best exercise is the one you do" and he works with each individual to best incorporate that in their lifestyle, and for their specific goals.

When he's not in the clinic, Dane is a husband, dad of four, and an active member of the Corvallis community, which is exactly why topics like workplace health, sustainable movement, and moving individuals and our community toward fitness is his bread and butter and passion to promote.
