Crested Butte's July 4th Parade and Block Party is a beloved small-town tradition that has been bringing the community together for over 100 years. This fun and funky celebration captures the true spirit of independence with a colorful parade full of creative floats, local characters, and plenty of mountain-town charm. After the parade, the festivities continue with a lively block party featuring music, food, and opportunities to connect with friends and neighbors. It's a joyful, all-ages event that reflects the heart, history, and vibrant personality of Crested Butte.
