"When the world grows dark, let your voice carry the light."

As the world begins to change, one woman brings something the von Trapp family hasn't known in a long time—joy. When Maria steps into their lives, she brings laughter, music, and a renewed sense of connection—just as the world outside their home begins to shift in dangerous ways. In a time of rising fear and uncertainty, their bond becomes an anchor—and their courage, a quiet form of resistance. The Sound of Music is a timeless story of love, family, and standing up for what truly matters, brought to life with one of the most beloved scores in musical theatre history.

Presented through special arrangement with Concord Theatricals

Rated G: Run time: 2 hours and 45 minutes with a 15-minute intermission
