

Calendar of Events

June 13, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

June 20, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

June 27, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

July 4, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

July 11, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

July 18, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

July 25, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

August 1, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

August 8, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

August 15, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

August 22, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

August 29, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

September 5, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

September 12, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

September 19, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven

September 26, 2026

Farmington Farmers Market

Creekside Park

99 Broyles St

Farmington, AR 72730

08:00 AM - 01:00 PM CST

markets@farmingtonar.com

The Farmington Farmers Market is where our community comes together to support local growers, makers, and small businesses. Each week, you'll find fresh produce, baked goods, handmade items, and seasonal favorites—plus friendly faces and a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.

More than a place to shop, the market is a gathering spot. It's a space to connect with neighbors, discover new local businesses, enjoy live music and special events, and celebrate everything that makes Farmington special. When you shop the market, you're investing directly in our local economy and helping local entrepreneurs thrive.

Come for the quality. Stay for the community. ?

Fresh • Local • Community-Driven