Presentation and book signing by Darcy Dougherty Maulsby

During her fun, interactive program, Maulsby serves up fascinating tidbits and cooking tips related to more than 150 years of Iowa cuisine and ethnic food traditions, from all corners of the state, with stories that include Iowa's classic breaded pork tenderloins, church dinners, the historic Younkers Team Room, Laura Ingalls Wilder, and more. Discover how Iowa's delectable cuisine is quintessentially Midwestern, grounded in its rich farming heritage and spiced with diverse ethnic influences.

The event is free and open to the public.

Warren Cultural Center,
director@warrenculturalcenter.com

Calling All Actors!

Warren Cultural Center

is holding a week-long theatre camp!

Join the adventure and be a part of the cast of The Vanishing of the Jolly Roger.

Who? Students ages 7 to 18

Where? Warren Cultural Center

When? June 17-21 from 9:30 to 1:30

(Campers need to bring a sack lunch)

Performance will be on June 21 at 6:30

Cost? Free! (Provided with funds from Empowering Adair County Foundation)

Footliters Traveling Playhouse: The Vanishing to the Jolly Roger is a week-long workshop for children interested in exploring the exciting world of theatre! The camp is designed for students of all backgrounds, experience levels, and training.

Anchors aweigh! When the Jolly Roger vanished into the Bermuda Triangle three hundred years ago, the world thought it was gone for good... until now. Join this swashbuckling pirate crew on an island adventure as they learn what is possible when we work together.

Registration is first come, first served, and everyone that signs up will be cast. We're excited to have young actors climb with us on a theatrical voyage this summer!

Visit us online at www.CoralvilleArts.org/FTP

Children must commit to attending all rehearsals and the final performance to participate in Footliters Traveling Playhouse.

Registration Deadline: May24 (Enrollment is limited)
