RETREAT TO WRITE – A 1010 Publishing Experience

Ready to reconnect with your creativity? Join us February 26–28 for Retreat to Write, an intimate getaway designed for writers and creatives who want to learn, unplug, and be inspired. Over three days, participants will gain insight from industry experts, enjoy nature-filled activities, and carve out intentional time to create.

We'll be staying in cozy lakeside yurts—survival mode... but make it comfortable! Each yurt includes electricity, AC/heat, and shared accommodation for up to three guests, plus an outdoor picnic table and fire pit for late-night conversations and quiet reflection.

Expect walking sessions, professional expert speakers, hands-on creative activities, and a supportive community that will motivate and uplift you. Space is limited, and a memorable experience is guaranteed.

*Interested? Follow 1010 Publishing on social media or email us for registration details. Let nature refuel your inspiration—we'll see you by the lake.
