GPCC Luncheon Meetings

Get ready to kick off one of Palmer's most anticipated traditions at our Colony Days Luncheon!

This special luncheon is all about celebrating the spirit of Colony Days and building excitement for the week ahead. We'll be sharing highlights of the full event lineup, so you won't miss a moment of the festivities happening throughout our community.

We'll also take time to recognize and thank the incredible sponsors who make Colony Days possible, with special acknowledgements to show our appreciation for their support.

Most importantly, this luncheon is your chance to connect with fellow members, community partners, and event organizers as we gear up for a fun, busy, and impactful celebration in Palmer.

Why attend?

Stay informed on important community issues
Support and connect with fellow Chamber members
Gain insight from organizations making a real impact locally
Build relationships that strengthen your business and our community

Our luncheons are open to everyone, with free attendance for GPCC members. Guests are welcome to join for a small fee. Please be sure to register in advance so we can plan accordingly and provide an accurate guest count to our caterer.

Many GPCC sponsorship levels include complimentary lunch benefits. If you're unsure whether your organization has meals included, please reach out to our staff—we're happy to help!

We hope to see you there!

Chamber Luncheon - Joint Luncheon
Alaska State Fair Grounds
11:15 AM - 01:30 PM ALA

The Mat-Su Joint Chamber Luncheon brings together business leaders, community members, and chamber representatives from across the Mat-Su Valley for an afternoon of connection and collaboration. Hosted at the Palmer State Fairgrounds, this special gathering provides a unique opportunity to network beyond your local chamber, build regional relationships, and strengthen the broader business community.

Enjoy a relaxed lunch while engaging with fellow professionals, sharing ideas, and exploring opportunities to work together across the Valley. Whether you're a longtime member or new to the chamber network, this event is a great way to expand your reach and be part of the collective energy driving the Mat-Su forward.
