90th Annual Summer Classic Rodeo Parade

Saturday, August 15, 2026

10:00 A.M. | Starts and ends at 4th & Main

Registration Deadline in Monday, August 3, 2026

Our big summer blow out parade is one not to miss. Come out and see all the floats decorated to the theme of the parade, entries representing past Junction High School graduating classes, classic cars, and many more! The Parade is free to enter but requires registration (see below).

Important Parade Registration Information

Parade registration has moved to online only. There will be no paper registration forms. To register for the parade, click the button on the left hand side of the page.

Judging Information

Judging begins at 8:30 a.m. All judged entries must be ready by 8:30 a.m. for judging. If your entry is not ready at 8:30 a.m. you will be disqualified from judging.

Quick Reference Parade Rules

Candy may only be thrown to the right side of your entry.

No ponying up. All horses must have a rider. No studs allowed.

All horses must have proof of negative Coggins to participate in the parade. Please contact the Chamber prior to the parade regarding Coggins paperwork.

No revving engines during the parade.

Absolutely no water balloons, water guns, or water-squirting items that can get attendees or participants wet are allowed.

Once the parade has begun, all participants must remain on/with their entry for the duration of the event. No switching to a different entry or "bailing out" while the parade is in progress.
