Artist statement:

Painting with art glass is an amazingly creative process that offers me the opportunity to design a painting that can then be displayed in multiple ways and even shapes. Glass fused paintings can take advantage of light in a way that painting on a canvas does not. I quite often create translucent paintings that are to be displayed in/on a stand by layering sheets of specialty glass together underneath the painted layers. This technique I use allows the fused glass landscapes to convey a sense of how the ever-changing light from the skies above throughout the course of a day influences what we see when we experience a scenic vista out in nature.

Exhibit language:

Scandia Wood-Blackwell is a longtime local WA State glass artist creating landscape paintings by layering varying forms of compatible art glass and kiln-forming techniques to complete her art pieces. The Kirkland Arts Center (main gallery) exhibit is Scandia's first formal exhibit and she has created numerous new paintings for this event. Artwork displayed will include a wide-range of sizes and prices from framed wall art to standing paintings created for front and backlit viewing.

Gallery Hours:

Tuesday through Friday, 11-4pm

Saturday 11-3pm

Sunday, Monday CLOSED

In the spirit of Diane Arbus, photographer Joplin captures the invigorated spirits of Polar Plungers as they emerge into the new year.

Photographer Megan Joplin has been a freelancer for nearly thirty years. Her work has been published in The Seattle Times, The Seattle P-I, The Stranger, The Seattle Weekly, Arts Resource Network, Balance Magazine, and in the book, THE STRANGER GUIDE TO SEATTLE. She's exhibited her work at various galleries around the country. Her series, The Miscarriage Diaries, was exhibited at the Peace House in Portland, Oregon in May 2012 and the Streff Gallery in Marylhurst, Oregon as part of the group show Bearing Witness: The Art of Pregnancy, Loss and Infertility, curated by Kristen Larsen. Megan was appointed to the Edmonds Arts Commission in 2025 and is co-founder of Ballinger Shakespeare Company, which produces free Shakespeare in the Park in under-served areas of Edmonds.

Abeja Wine Dinner with Winemakers Daniel Wampfler and Amy Alvarez-Wampfler at The SOMM
The SOMM Hotel
14800 NE 144th Street
Woodinville, WA 98072
05:30 PM - 09:30 PM PST
Christina Lehman,
clehman@thesomm.com
Walla Walla meets Woodinville.

Abeja Wine Dinner with Winemakers Daniel Wampfler and Amy Alvarez-Wampfler

There is a quiet rhythm to Walla Walla, where vineyard rows and farmstead fields move with the turning seasons. On the last evening of spring, just before summer arrives, that rhythm settles into something still and expectant. This year marks 25 years of Abeja Winery and the first-ever summer season at The SOMM.

A collaborative evening unfolds as an intimate Abeja Winery Dinner at The SOMM with winemakers Daniel Wampfler and Amy Alvarez-Wampfler. Wines from estate vineyards across the Walla Walla Valley and Columbia Valley will be artfully paired with a five-course dinner from The SOMM's Executive Chef Maximillian Petty, James Beard-nominated.

Abeja began as a restored farmstead, with vineyards and gardens surrounding a working winery, Inn and restaurant, all part of a single living estate. That same sense of harmony carries through the evening, where each pairing reflects restraint, clarity, and place, marking both a season's turn and a shared sense of arrival. This is a landmark celebration of Abeja's 25th year and The SOMM's first summer, where legacy and beginning share the same table.

Pride Across the Bridge works hard to provide inclusive and affirming spaces for transgender and nonbinary individuals to come together, celebrate their identities, and enjoy the camaraderie and joys of swimming, that may be taken for granted by many. We know the hurdles many in our trans and nonbinary community face, and whether it's body dysphoria or self-conscious body image keeping you from the water, join your community who understands and live out your aquatic dream! We offer a supportive environment where everyone can feel welcomed and respected, regardless of their gender identity or expression. Our events are designed to foster a sense of community, belonging, and joy, allowing participants to connect with like-minded individuals, share experiences, and build lasting friendships. :)

Alluring Landscapes in Glass & Light: Kiln fused glass paintings by Scandia Wood-Blackwell

Kirkland Arts Center

620 Market Street

Kirkland, WA 98033

11:00 AM - 04:00 PM PST

Craig Hurd-McKenney, 4258227161

churdm@kirklandartscenter.org

Artist statement:

Painting with art glass is an amazingly creative process that offers me the opportunity to design a painting that can then be displayed in multiple ways and even shapes. Glass fused paintings can take advantage of light in a way that painting on a canvas does not. I quite often create translucent paintings that are to be displayed in/on a stand by layering sheets of specialty glass together underneath the painted layers. This technique I use allows the fused glass landscapes to convey a sense of how the ever-changing light from the skies above throughout the course of a day influences what we see when we experience a scenic vista out in nature.

Exhibit language:

Scandia Wood-Blackwell is a longtime local WA State glass artist creating landscape paintings by layering varying forms of compatible art glass and kiln-forming techniques to complete her art pieces. The Kirkland Arts Center (main gallery) exhibit is Scandia's first formal exhibit and she has created numerous new paintings for this event. Artwork displayed will include a wide-range of sizes and prices from framed wall art to standing paintings created for front and backlit viewing.

Gallery Hours:

Tuesday through Friday, 11-4pm

Saturday 11-3pm

Sunday, Monday CLOSED

Our events are designed to foster a sense of community, belonging, and joy, allowing participants to connect with like-minded individuals, share experiences, and build lasting friendships. :)*

We are a volunteer-driven organization committed to promoting the well-being and visibility of the trans and nonbinary community through engaging and accessible events. Our team is comprised of passionate individuals dedicated to creating positive change and celebrating diversity. Whether you're a seasoned swimmer or dipping your toes in the water for the first time, Pride Across the Bridge welcomes you to join us in making waves and embracing the beauty of our shared journey.

RSVP for free to join the swim. Events hosted at rotating locations each month from 4:15pm – 7pm, please see event webpage and RSVP for details. If you need gender-affirming swimwear, Pride Across the Bridge may be able to offer reimbursements to help cover costs on first-come-first-serve basis. Please see event page for link to apply.

Guidelines: In our swim meetups, inclusivity and respect are paramount. We operate under a zero-tolerance policy for discrimination, harassment, or hate speech based on gender identity, sexual orientation, race, or any other discrimination against your human beings. We ask all participants to respect each other's pronouns and to contribute to a positive and supportive atmosphere. Privacy and personal boundaries are to be respected at all times.

All-ages welcome – attendees under 18 must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Kids may be asked to take a swim test (especially if under 14 or needing additional support)

No personal photography will be allowed to maintain a safe environment for everyone's comfort, unless explicitly notified by event hosts with permission from everyone in the shot. We know that folks may still want a memento to remember their joy, so we're planning live illustration for each swim meet. We will have paid trans and nonbinary live sketch artists from our community, who are there to enjoy the vibe and capture the magic.

We encourage community engagement and invite everyone to stay informed about our events, announcements, and community news by signing up for our newsletter on our website or following us on social media @prideacrossthebridge. We strive to make our events accessible to all, and accommodations can be arranged upon request.

The Attic Theatre is excited to celebrate America's 250th with our live stage presentation of "YANKEE DOODLE DANDY", the inspirational story of the life and music of George M. Cohan, who created and shaped what we now call musical theater. He was called "the greatest single figure the American theatre ever produced", as a playwright, actor, composer and producer. His legacy of patriotic and Broadway music gave us many memorable songs including: Give My Regards to Broadway; Over There; Grand Old Flag and of course, his most remembered song, Yankee Doodle Dandy.

When asked about his success, Cohan responded, "I'm just an ordinary guy who knows what ordinary guys like to see. I have a front row center seat to see the greatest show on earth, the people. So, to the American people, I say God Bless them."

The Attic's production will take place July 10, 11, 12 and July 17, 18, 19 at the Sammamish Valley Grange Hall - 14654 148th Ave NE, Woodinville, WA. The Attic will be offering a special discount of $10 tickets for all veterans at their 3pm July 11th production (seating limited – call ahead).

For more details on this production and to purchase tickets, go to: <https://theattictheatre.org> or contact, mark@theattictheatre.org .

NIA Eastside I-90 Collective: July Experience for Invited Guests
Embassy Suites by Hilton Seattle Bellevue
3225 158th Ave SE
Bellevue, WA 98008
03:00 PM - 04:30 PM PST
Cathryn Dall, 425-202-6169
cathryn@niaeastside.com

A curated room of Eastside business owners building real relationships and referrals that convert.

Most networking falls short. You show up, exchange business cards, have a few surface-level conversations... and leave with little to no real opportunity.

The NIA Eastside I-90 Collective was built to be different.

This is a curated group of growth-minded business owners from across Bellevue, Newcastle, Issaquah, Sammamish, Mercer Island, Renton, and the greater Eastside who are serious about building relationships that actually drive business. Here, networking isn't transactional—it's strategic, consistent, and rooted in trust.

Our monthly meetings are designed to help you:

Build meaningful, referral-ready relationships
Expand your reach across the Eastside
Have better, more strategic business conversations
Generate referrals that actually convert

This July meeting is our official membership meeting, and we're opening a limited number of seats for invited guests to experience the Collective firsthand.

Who this is for:

Growth-oriented business owners (solopreneurs to ~50 employees)
Service-based, B2B, trades, wellness, and professional services
People who value collaboration over competition

About the Collective:

The NIA Eastside I-90 Collective is a regional group designed to connect business owners along the I-90 corridor—pulling influence and relationships from Bellevue, Newcastle, Issaquah, Sammamish, Mercer Island, and Renton.

Meeting Details:

We meet monthly the 2nd Tuesday of each month at a convenient location just off I-90 for easy access across the Eastside.

A note on attendance:

This is a curated group, and guest attendance is limited. After attending, we'll connect to determine if it's the right fit—for you and for the Collective.

Join us on Saturday July 18th, 5:30-8:30pm at Kirkland's Peter Kirk Pool, for a joyful, affirming evening of community and connection at Splash of Pride, a private pool night dedicated to the 2SLGBTQIA+ community! This FREE (13+ year old) event is made possible through a partnership between Pride Across the Bridge and the City of Kirkland's DEIB Office, we are very grateful for their support! :)

Pride Across the Bridge works hard to provide inclusive and affirming spaces for our 2SLGBTQIA+ community to come together, celebrate their identities, and enjoy the camaraderie and joys of swimming, that may be taken for granted by many in our community. We know the hurdles many in our trans, nonbinary, and queer communities face, and whether it's body dysphoria, or self-conscious body image keeping you from the water, join your community who understands and live out your aquatic dream! We offer a supportive environment where everyone can feel welcomed and respected, regardless of their gender identity or expression. Our events are designed to foster a sense of community, belonging, and joy, allowing participants to connect with like-minded individuals, share experiences, and build lasting friendships. :)

We are an all-volunteer organization committed to promoting the well-being and visibility of the trans and nonbinary community through engaging and accessible events. Our team is comprised of passionate individuals dedicated to creating positive change and celebrating diversity. Whether you're a seasoned swimmer or dipping your toes in the water for the first time, Pride Across the Bridge welcomes you to join us in making waves and embracing the beauty of our shared journey.

The Attic Theatre is excited to celebrate America's 250th with our live stage presentation of "YANKEE DOODLE DANDY", the inspirational story of the life and music of George M. Cohan, who created and shaped what we now call musical theater. He was called "the greatest single figure the American theatre ever produced", as a playwright, actor, composer and producer. His legacy of patriotic and Broadway music gave us many memorable songs including: Give My Regards to Broadway; Over There; Grand Old Flag and of course, his most remembered song, Yankee Doodle Dandy.

When asked about his success, Cohan responded, "I'm just an ordinary guy who knows what ordinary guys like to see. I have a front row center seat to see the greatest show on earth, the people. So, to the American people, I say God Bless them."

The Attic's production will take place July 10, 11, 12 and July 17, 18, 19 at the Sammamish Valley Grange Hall - 14654 148th Ave NE, Woodinville, WA. The Attic will be offering a special discount of $10 tickets for all veterans at their 3pm July 11th production (seating limited – call ahead).
