Santa Paula, CA 93060

Times TBD

James Lantiegne, 855.706.2442

Welcome to the 2024 Santa Paula Film Festival, where creativity knows no bounds and storytelling takes center stage! As a celebration of cinematic ingenuity, we proudly champion the diverse voices of independent filmmakers, both from Ventura County and beyond. Nestled in the heart of Santa Paula and the Heritage Valley, our festival serves as a vibrant platform for emerging talents, offering a spotlight to local artists while fostering a community that embraces the art of indie filmmaking. From thought-provoking narratives to captivating documentaries, we believe that indie films enrich our cultural landscape, sparking conversations, and forging connections that resonate far beyond the silver screen. Join us as we embark on a cinematic journey filled with inspiration, imagination, and the boundless spirit of independent storytelling.

Rules & Terms

The Santa Paula Film Festival is a trademark of The House of MAGIC Foundations for the Arts, Inc. A 501(c)3 Charitable Organization registered in Santa Paula, California.

Submissions Rules for Santa Paula Film Festival are as follows:

Films that are publicly streaming or broadcasted in the United States are not eligible. (we don't want films that people can already see online)

Finished projects that have been completed in 2024 or 2023 are eligible for the Fall 2024 festival.

Indie filmmakers may submit more than one entry, but each entry must be submitted separately, and not all entries may be selected.

We do not accept music videos or commercials.

Films not produced in English must have English subtitles. We do have a special category for Spanish speaking films, but request that they have English subtitles.

Not all submitted films will be selected. If your film is not selected, registration fees are not refundable.

If your film contains, extreme violence, language, or nudity, you must disclose this during submission. This will not make you ineligible, but it may limit your ability for viewing.

Not all films may be eligible for competition.

The selection committee's and judges' decisions are final.

We reserve the right to make changes to festival rules without prior notice.

If selected, you will be required to provide:

- Digital pictures from the film and a large format digital copy of the film's poster*
- The film's synopsis and a short bio of the film's creator*
- A movie trailer for the film*
- An HD version of the film that can be played in digital format*
- You may be required to provide a DCP copy of the film*

Filmmaker assumes all costs associated with delivering said film

Santa Paula Cruise Night
Santa Paula Main Street, 8th to 10th Street
TBD
SANTA PAULA CRUISE NIGHT!
FIRST FRIDAY OF THE MONTH
APRIL THRU OCTOBER

Experience the thrill of classic cars, live music, local shops and food!

As we want everyone to enjoy the event, if you are bringing a car or attending, please be aware of the following safety restrictions:

Due to the event impacting local businesses, no event parking before 2pm. Parking violations will be enforced.

If bringing a vehicle, please arrive before 4pm. No cars will be allowed entry after 4pm.

No vehicle movement inside the event during event hours. Cars on display must remain parked until 7pm.

Consumption of alcohol in public is a violation of the City of Santa Paula Municipal Code.

Restaurants are not allowed to distribute alcohol beyond the provisions of their State Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) license.

Musical bands on sidewalks or streets are not allowed without a permit.

The City of Santa Paula thanks Santa Paula Together, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Property Business Improvement District (PBID) for keeping this exciting tradition safe and family friendly! Feel free to share this event with your friends and family.

For questions, please contact: info@santapaulachamber.com.
