

Legendary Star Erik Estrada To Appear at Greenville Graffiti Car Show

The Greenville Graffiti Car Show, sponsored by the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, is excited to announce that legendary actor Erik Estrada will be the celebrity guest. The car show will be held on Saturday, June 15 in downtown Greenville.

Estrada will sign autographs and pose for pictures between 10am and 2pm on the courthouse lawn at no charge, which is a significant change from past years.

Chamber Executive Director Elaine McNamara said, "We are so excited to have Erik join us for the car show this year. We have been working with Grand Productions on bringing him to town for several months since he was one of our most requested celebrities on Facebook." She added, "We are thankful for the support of Greenville Tourism and the Greenville City Council to make this happen."

Estrada has captured the hearts of millions of fans world-wide as a result of his six-year run starring as highway patrol officer Frank Poncherello in the highly successful television series, ChiP's.

To date, Estrada has appeared in over 140 television shows and movies, and is still active in the industry today. Starting out in television staples such as Hawaii Five-O, Emergency, Mannix and movies including The New Centurions, Airport 1975, Estrada has built an impressive acting resume.

For additional information, visit GreenvilleILChamber.org or the Greenville Graffiti Car Show Facebook page.