- The deadline for submitting 2023 data is June 4, 2024.
- Several previous deadlines for submission of EEO-1 data were also delayed.
- Employers should monitor the EEOC's EEO-1 webpage for updates.
- Employers filing EEO-1 Reports for the first time must register to receive a company login, password and further instructions for filing from the EEOC.

Upcoming EEO-1 Reporting Deadlines

Under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act (Title VII), employers with 100 or more employees and certain federal contractors must submit a report about their workforces to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) by March 31 every year. This report, known as the EEO-1 report, is a federally mandated survey that collects workforce data categorized by race, ethnicity, sex and job category.

Delayed Collection and Deadline for 2023 Reports

The collection of EEO-1 data from 2023 has been delayed, and the portal for submitting EEO-1 reports will not even be opened before the usual deadline in 2024. Instead, the EEOC expects to open the portal for employers to begin entering 2023 EEO-1 information on April 30, 2024.

The EEOC has also set a new deadline of June 4, 2024, for the 2023 reports.

Updated Resources

According to the EEOC, its online message center for employers to ask questions and obtain other support for EEO-1 reporting will open along with the portal on April 30, 2024. The agency also indicated that it would release updated instructions and specifications for 2023 reporting by March 19, 2024. These new resources will be posted on EEOC's EEO-1 Data Collection site as they become available.

Covered Entities

The following entities are subject to EEO-1 reporting:

- A private employer that has 100 or more employees (with limited exceptions for schools and other organizations);
- A private employer with between 15 and 99 employees if it is part of a group of employers that legally constitutes a single enterprise that employs a total of 100 or more employees; and
- A federal contractor that has 50 or more employees, is either a prime contractor or first-tier subcontractor, and has a contract, subcontract or purchase order amounting to $50,000 or more.

Enforcement

Although the EEOC sends notification letters to employers it knows to be subject to the EEO-1 requirements, all employers are responsible for obtaining and submitting the necessary information prior to the appropriate deadline.

An employer that fails or refuses to file an EEO-1 report as required may be compelled to do so by a federal district court. Federal contractors also risk losing their government contracts for failures to comply.
