Established in 1964 by Ridley Monk in Sylvester, Georgia, Worth Insurance Company is a third generation family-owned and operated insurance agency. Robert “Bob” Monk joined his father as an agent in 1975 and David Monk, the third generation member, joined the group in 2004. With offices in Sylvester and Tifton, each staff member is a licensed agent, meaning everyone who picks up the phone can take care of your needs.

We consider taking care of your personal and commercial insurance serious business we understand the importance of protecting our clients from unforeseen financial loss. Our team has long-standing relationships with our two primary carriers; we have represented Travelers Insurance since 1964 and Cincinnati Financial Corporation since 1991, in addition to offering products from a variety of other companies.

The team at Worth Insurance is dedicated to community service: we are members of the Sylvester/Worth Chamber of Commerce, the Tifton/Tift County Chamber of Commerce and are Partners of Excellence with the Worth County School System, among other community projects.

Worth Insurance is proud to have recently partnered with the Brownlee Agency to expand resources and offer additional products and service to all of Southwest Georgia.
