

Overview:

Have you heard the news? Congress retroactively renewed tax incentives and it flew under the radar! Retroactive as in it was expired for 2018 and 2019, but now the Commercial Building tax incentive is back!

What's more, on February 21, 2020 a tax payer won versus the IRS in U.S. Tax Court on funded R&D. This is a HUGE win for design, development, Original Equipment Manufacturing, Original Design Manufacturing, and outsourced projects across all industries!

Learn how to leverage federal & state tax incentives to boost your cash flow for your business in this complimentary webinar! Register Here.
